ARE YOU NERVOUS ABOUT COMPETITIONS?

ARE YOU APPREHENSIVE ABOUT COMPETING?

Showcasing is a great way to give you and your students the opportunity to display their knowledge and skills without the pressure of the competition rounds.

What is Showcasing?

On March 5, 2010 at Embassy Suites in Cary, the state competition will take place, and showcase rooms have been reserved; the students that will be showcasing will be critiqued by a panel of judges, but not numerically scored. There will be awards presented to each school that brings a showcase team.

Don't wait until next year to start something great today!
