

NCBA 2007-2008 ADMINISTRATIVE LAW SECTION

Participation Selection Form

I want to get involved in the activities of the Administrative Law Section of the North Carolina Bar Association, and I have marked my first, second and third choices for committee membership and/or I have checked the box indicating that I am willing to be placed wherever my services can best be used. (Please complete and return this form even if you wish to remain active on your current committee.) If you have any questions, please call Jacqueline Terrell-Fountain at the Bar Center at (800) 662-7407.

- MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Develops and implements ideas, programs and practices to maintain and increase Section membership. Brad Williams, Assistant Raleigh City Attorney, Chair.
- CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE: Plans and arranges seminars for members and others who receive credit towards yearly CLE hours mandated by the North Carolina State Bar. Jack Nichols, Allen & Pinnix, P.A., and Joe Smith, Commissioner of Banks, Co-Chairs.
- PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE: Authors, edits and publishes one or more “how to” manuals for administrative law practioners. (To be appointed.)
- ETHICS COMMITTEE: Researches new ethics questions presented to the Ethics Committee of the North Carolina State Bar as to the probable effect on administrative law practioners and responds on behalf of the Section. Tom West, Poyner & Spruill, LLP, Chair.
- NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE: Selects and presents a slate of nominees for annual Council membership and selects a nominee to fill vacancies in the interim. Noel Allen, Allen & Pinnix, P.A. (Immediate-Past Section Chair), Chair.
- LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE: Initiates additions to and changes in state statutory law affecting administrative law practioners, reviews and comments on new law being initiated by other groups, and guides such proposals through the legislative process. Bruce Thompson, Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein, LLP, Chair.
- NEWSLETTER COMMITTEE: Authors, edits and publishes two newsletters each year. Typically, each issue will have two lead articles, Section news and a summary of recent developments. Mary Beach Schuping, Allen & Pinnix, P.A., Chair.
- PRO BONO COMMITTEE: Suggests and develops pro bono opportunities for administrative law practioners. Curtis Veneble, Pisgah Legal Services, Chair.
- Please assign me to any committee where my help is needed.
(This box may be checked in addition to or in lieu of specific committee selections.)
