

Robert W. Kilroy

Mr. Kilroy is a native of Boston, Massachusetts, and began his career with the National Labor Relations Board at Indianapolis, Indiana. His practice was concentrated on criminal and labor law representing Unions and individuals. His current practice, at Hampstead, Pender County, North Carolina is limited to zoning, municipal and real estate litigation with indigent defense in Superior Court criminal cases. He serves as Town Attorney for the Town of North Topsail Beach. He is a Labor Arbitrator upon the panels of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service and American Arbitration Association.

rwkilroy@charter.net

Benjamin R. Kuhn

Ben Kuhn is the founding member of The Kuhn Law Firm, PLLC, which is located in downtown Raleigh. Prior to starting The Kuhn Law Firm in 2005, Ben practiced law in Raleigh with Holt York McDarris & High, LLP, and Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP.

For over 10 years, Ben has focused his practice on real estate, business, land use, zoning, administrative and regulatory matters, and litigation. He represents and advises commercial and residential developers in connection with a wide range of real estate and business related issues. Ben also represents real estate and business clients in state trial and appellate courts.

Ben earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from The University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 1992, and his J.D. in 1996 from Temple University School of Law.

Ben is a member of the North Carolina State Bar, Tenth Judicial District Bar, North Carolina Bar Association (Real Estate, Zoning and Land Use, Administrative Law, and International Law sections), and the Wake County Bar Association.

bkuhn@kuhnlawfirm.com

Emily B. Kuhn

Emily B. Kuhn is the Manager of Lawyer Recruiting at Smith, Anderson, Blount, Dorsett, Mitchell & Jernigan, LLP in Raleigh. Prior to joining Smith Anderson, Emily practiced as a litigation associate.

Emily earned her B.A. in English with distinction in 1999 and her J.D. in 2002 from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

ekuhn@smithlaw.com

W. Daniel Martin, III

J.D., University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1973; B.A., North Carolina State University, 1969.

Mr. Martin is leader of the Community Associations Practice Group. His practice experience encompasses commercial real estate, community associations law, and general business and financing transactions. Mr. Martin regularly works with and provides legal services to commercial lending institutions, developers, individuals, and other entities regarding acquisition financing, refinancing, purchase and sale of commercial properties, and the development of unimproved real estate. He has published various articles and served on the North Carolina Bar Association committee which drafted the North Carolina Planned Community Act. Mr. Martin also regularly participates as a speaker and panelist for continuing legal education programs sponsored by the North Carolina Bar Association, the Community Associations Institute, and other private and civic groups. He currently serves on the board of directors of Wilmington Industrial Development, Inc., also known as The Wilmington Committee of 100. Mr. Martin has been rated by his peers as being "preeminent" in his respective fields of law.

wdm3@mindspring.com

Cristina Fernandez Pierce

Cristina Fernandez (Pierce), Vice President, Managed Markets, Corporate Legal Operations, GlaxoSmithKline. Cristina joined GlaxoSmithKline in 1986. Cristina is responsible for providing legal counsel to the Managed Markets Division of GSK. She concentrates her practice on FDA law, drug price reporting to the Medicaid, Medicare, and Public Health Service Programs, antitrust law, consumer protection, anti-kickback, and false claim statutes, and contracts with commercial and government purchasers or reimbursers of prescription medicines. Cristina earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science (cum laude) from North Carolina State University in 1982 and a JD from the University of Georgia in 1985. Cristina is licensed to practice law in North Carolina and Georgia. A native of Havana, Cuba, Ms. Fernandez and her husband, David Pierce, have two children and live in Durham. Cristina lived in Buenos Aires, Argentina for three years as a child.

cristina.m.fernandez@gsk.com

Jennifer Shay Stuart

Jennifer Shay Stuart practices immigration law with Legal Aid of North Carolina's Battered Immigrant Project (BIP). The BIP is a statewide project that provides legal services to immigrant victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking. Jennifer is a member of the American Immigration Lawyer's Association, the North Carolina Bar Association's Immigration Law Committee and RIPPLE, North Carolina's anti-human trafficking task force. She received her B.A. from Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida, and her J.D. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She began her legal career as a Clifton-Everett Fellow in Legal Aid of North Carolina's New Bern Office where she practiced family law and developed pro se divorce and custody clinics. She is now based in the Raleigh office of Legal Aid and enjoys having clients from all over the world.

jennifers@legalaiddnc.org

Lynda B. Imhoff

North Carolina Bar Association Staff Liaison

Lynda Imhoff is the NCBA's Assistant Director of Sections and Divisions.

Limhoff@ncbar.org

Argentina Attorney Exchange Itinerary

June 2008

- | | | |
|--------|---------|---|
| Day 1 | June 6 | Fly From Home City to Miami to Buenos Aires, Argentina |
| Day 2 | June 7 | Arrive Buenos Aires, Argentina |
| Day 3 | June 8 | Tour of Buenos Aires |
| Day 4 | June 9 | Argentina Court System, Asociación Argentina de Magistrados |
| Day 5 | June 10 | 10:30 am - Labor Relations Seminar
2:00 pm - Immigration Laws Seminar |
| Day 6 | June 11 | 10:30 am - Trade and Commerce Regulations Seminar
2:00 pm - Intellectual Property Seminar/Pro Bono |
| Day 7 | June 12 | 10:30 am - Argentina Dispute Resolution Seminar
2:00 pm - Taxation Seminar |
| Day 8 | June 13 | Visit Colonia Del Sacramento in Uruguay |
| Day 9 | June 14 | Leave Buenos Aires |
| Day 10 | June 15 | Return To Miami To Home City |

Travel Arrangements by Jan McLauren of McLauren Travel Services, Raleigh, North Carolina, USA 919-782-8050

North Carolina Bar Association Attorney Exchange

Destination:
ARGENTINA
June 6-15, 2008

Delegation Members

Coordinated by the International Law & Practice Section of the North Carolina Bar Association

NORTH CAROLINA
BAR ASSOCIATION
SEEKING LIBERTY & JUSTICE

North Carolina Bar Association
PO Box 3688
Cary, North Carolina 27519 USA

Linda Markus Daniels

Linda Markus Daniels was a founder and principal of Daniels Daniels & Verdonik, P.A., the first resident law firm in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina, which firm was recently merged into Ward and Smith, P.A., where she now practices. She concentrates her practice in the representation of entrepreneurial, technology-based and international businesses, and their investors. In this practice she is called upon to work on such matters as mergers and acquisitions, venture capital, securities transactions, the licensing, distribution and protection of intellectual property, tax problems and various international issues. Ms. Daniels received her undergraduate degree from Duke University and then received a M.A. in Latin American Economics from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. After working as an international and regulatory economic analyst for three years, she returned to Duke University School of Law where she earned a J.D. and served as an editor of the Duke Law Journal. She has served as an officer and director of the North Carolina Technology Association, a director of the Council for Entrepreneurial Development, and Chairman of the 2008 and 2006 Venture Conferences, the 2004 and 2002 InfoTech Conferences, and the 2000 and 1994 Conferences on Entrepreneurship. Ms. Daniels has received the North Carolina Technology Association Top IT Support Service Provider award, Triangle Business Journal's top "Women in Business" award, and Business Leader's "Woman Extraordinaire" award and "Financial Impact Leader" award. She is also a founding member of the first North Carolina chapter of the national Women President's Organization. Ms. Daniels is married and has two school-aged boys.

lmd@wardandsmith.com

John R. Erwin Delegation Leader

John R. Erwin is a partner in the law firm of Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein. He is a corporate attorney, whose clients include foreign and domestic corporations, as well as technology companies and health care providers. His practice is in the transactional area, including merger and acquisitions and technology licensing. He received his baccalaureate degree from Davidson College and a law degree from the University of North Carolina School of Law. He spent a year enrolled in and attending Philipps Universitat in Marburg, Germany. He has four children. He and his wife, Judith, have hosted exchange students from Germany, France, Spain and Japan. He has also participated as a delegate in two North Carolina Department of Commerce European Missions. He is a member of the Council of the International Section of the North Carolina Bar Association.

johnerwin@parkerpoe.com

Becky R. French

Becky R. French is the former General Counsel and Secretary of MCNC previously known as the Micro Electronic Center of North Carolina. Prior to MCNC she served as General Counsel to North Carolina State University and as an Adjunct Associate Professor in the College of Textiles. She has served on the Board of Directors of the National Association of College and University Attorneys (NACUA) as well as being a Member of the Licensing Executive Society (LES). She has served on NCAA Committees and has been active in the North Carolina Bar Association's Education, Corporate Counsel and Sports Law sections as well as serving on the NCBA's Insurance Committee. She is originally from Charleston, Missouri and now resides in Raleigh, North Carolina with her husband, William D. Harazin. She is a law graduate of Southern Illinois University School of Law and a graduate of Southeast Missouri State University with a B.S. in Business Administration.

bfrench@ibeckwith.com

Richard W. Gabriel

Richard W. Gabriel is the managing partner for Gabriel, Berry & Weston, L.L.P. in Greensboro, N.C. A native of Greensboro, he lives there with his wife and family. He enjoys reading, outdoor sports, community service and spending time with his family.

Richard earned his AB from Duke University, his JD from Wake Forest University and his MBA from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. He was Editor-in-Chief of the Wake Forest Jurist in 1975, a visiting lecturer at Guilford College from 1977-1981, and a visiting lecturer at the Small Business Assistance Center at Guilford Technical Community College. He has co-authored several legal continuing education courses in the areas of personal injury and business planning. Richard has served as a Preceptor at the Elon University School of Law since the program's inception in 2006, and participates as a presiding judge in the law school's Moot Court Appellant Argument program for its students. He continues to serve as both a presiding judge and scoring juror in the North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyer's Wade Edwards Mock Trial program.

His practice includes personal injury and workers compensation, business law, taxation, trusts and estates and probate. His clients include local and foreign manufacturers and service concerns, family businesses, commercial lenders and local developers and trade organizations.

rgabriel@gbwlaw.com

William D. Harazin

William D. Harazin, is a principal in the law firm of William D. Harazin, PLLC and an Adjunct Associate Professor in the College of Textiles at North Carolina State University in Raleigh, North Carolina. He practices in the areas of Business, Corporate and International Law providing legal services to businesses, large and small. He is originally from Chicago, Illinois and now resides in Raleigh, NC with his wife, Becky R. French. His international involvement includes being the former Chairman of the Board for the World Trade Center North Carolina and past President of the North Carolina World Trade Association. He was the Delegation Leader of the Inaugural NCBA Attorney Exchange to Taiwan in 2006. In addition, he is a past Chairman of the International Law and Practice Section of the North Carolina Bar Association, and a member of the North Carolina District Export Council. He is a law graduate of Southern Illinois University School of Law and a graduate of Illinois State University.

wharazin@harazinlaw.com

C. D. Heidgerd

Dick Heidgerd is in private practice in Raleigh, North Carolina and now represents people, their families, and their businesses with their serious civil, administrative and family concerns. He is a mediator and he has also practiced criminal law. He is married to Linda Heidgerd, who is the lead social worker with the Wake County Public Schools. He and his wife both are graduates of Wake Forest University and he is a graduate of Wake Forest University School of Law. They have two adult daughters, one of whom is now serving on active duty in the United States Air Force, and three grandchildren. Linda and Dick have traveled throughout the world for pleasure, and this is their second trip to Argentina.

cdh@heidgerdlaw.com

Deborah Hildebran-Bachofen

Debbie Hildebran-Bachofen is a partner with Manning Fulton & Skinner, P.A. in Raleigh, North Carolina. She represents closely-held corporations on corporate and business matters and also advises business owners on day-to-day operations. In addition, Debbie represents key executives in estate planning and the administration of large and complex estates.

A graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Law, Debbie is a Board Certified Specialist in Estate Planning and Probate, a Certified Public Accountant, a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, and serves on the UNC Tax Institute Planning Committee. She also serves on the Board of Advisors for the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce and the Salvation Army and is active in the North Carolina and Wake County Bar Associations, serving on various committees. She is the recipient of the 2005 Women in Business Award presented by The Business Journal and the 2005 Women Extraordinaire Award presented by Business Leader Magazine.

hildebran@manningfulton.com

Scott R. Hile

Scott R. Hile is the Corporate Counsel and Secretary of American & Efirid, Inc., a global manufacturing subsidiary of Ruddick Corporation (NYSE: RDK), in Mt. Holly, N.C. with operations in more than 32 countries. Prior to going in-house, he was an associate in the Charlotte office of Hunton & Williams LLP and before that an associate in the Palo Alto office of Cooley Godward LLP and the Charlotte office of Poyner & Spruill LLP. While in school, Scott also worked as a stagiaire for Van Bael & Bellis in Brussels, Belgium. He specializes in international and cross-border M&A and joint venture transactions, emerging companies, intellectual property licensing, and public securities.

He is the chair-elect of the International Law and Practice Section Council of the N.C. Bar Association and was selected in 2006 by the Charlotte Business Journal as one of the "40 Under 40" honoring outstanding entrepreneurs, executives, and professionals in the Charlotte region. He also has written articles and spoken on various subjects, including international transactional law and global business ethics.

He received his undergraduate degree in Economics from Davidson College in 1995 and, in 1999, a joint law degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law and Master of International Business Studies (MIBS/IMBA) degree from the University of South Carolina Darla Moore School of Business. He also received a Certificate in European Business and French from the Ecole Européenne des Affaires in Paris, France. Mr. Hile is a licensed member of the California, District of Columbia, North Carolina and South Carolina State Bars. Scott resides with his wife, Tara, outside of Charlotte, North Carolina.

shile@carolina.rr.com

Allison A. Holmes

Allison is an attorney with Vandeventer Black LLP in Raleigh, North Carolina. She concentrates her practice in civil and commercial litigation. Allison's practice focuses on a wide variety of business and land use matters, including corporate and partnership matters, intellectual property matters, eminent domain and land title disputes.

Allison earned a B.S.B.A. in Marketing from Georgetown University and a J.D. from University of North Carolina School of Law (with honors). While in law school she served as symposium editor and executive board member of the North Carolina Journal of Law and Technology, as research assistant to Professor Thomas L. Hazen, and as a member of the 2004 Joint Journal Competition Committee and the Holderness Moot Court Negotiation Team. She is also a graduate of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics.

aholmes@vanblk.com

