

Benjamin R. Kuhn

Ben Kuhn is the founding member of The Kuhn Law Firm, PLLC, which is located in downtown Raleigh. Prior to starting The Kuhn Law Firm in 2005, Mr. Kuhn practiced law in Raleigh with Holt York McDarris & High, LLP, and Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP. His practice focuses on real estate, business, land use, zoning, administrative and regulatory matters, and litigation. Mr. Kuhn has represented and advised commercial and residential developers in connection with a wide range of real estate and business related issues. He has also represented developers and businesses engaged in large-scale infrastructure projects, public facilities construction, and real estate development across the Triangle community and North Carolina. Mr. Kuhn has also represented real estate and business clients in state trial and appellate courts in order to protect their investments and property rights. Mr. Kuhn is a member of the North Carolina State Bar, Tenth Judicial District Bar, North Carolina Bar Association (Real Estate, Zoning and Land Use, Administrative Law, and Business Law Sections), and the Wake County Bar Association. He is a graduate of Temple University School of Law and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Ben lives in Raleigh with his wife Emily. bkuhn@kuhnlawfirm.com

G. Gray Wilson

G. Gray Wilson is a senior partner in the law firm of Wilson & Coffey, LLP in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He is a trial attorney who practices in the areas of professional liability and commercial litigation. A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Wilson received his baccalaureate degree from Davidson College and a law degree from Duke University School of Law. He is the Immediate Past President of the North Carolina Bar Association and a fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers. He is the author of North Carolina Civil Procedure, a two-volume treatise, and The Killing Pond, a mystery novel published in 1993. A prolific reader with an interest in foreign language, he has traveled extensively. This is his second trip to the Orient. gwilson@wilsonandiseman.com

Cheryl M. Wilson

Cheryl M. Wilson is a native of Lakeland, Florida, married to delegate G. Gray Wilson. She is a graduate of Salem College in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where she majored in English and History. An active volunteer in charitable causes, Ms. Wilson is a member of the Board of Directors of Oak Ridge Military Academy, the only educational military facility in North Carolina. An avid student of yoga and pilates, her interests include art, fashion, gardening and travel.

Coordinated by the
International Law & Practice Section
of the North Carolina Bar Association

TAIWAN ATTORNEY EXCHANGE ITINERARY MAY 2006

- Day 1 May 23 FLY from Home City to New York to Hong Kong
- Day 2 May 24 ARRIVE in Hong Kong, Fly to Taipei
- Day 3 May 25 TAIPEI
Ministry of Justice, Judicial Yuan, Chiang Kai Shek Memorial Hall and the Martyrs Shrine. Taipei Bar Association.
- Day 4 May 26 TAIPEI
National Palace Museum and Longshan Temple and Observatory 101. Huahsi Night Market.
- Day 5 May 27 TAIPEI to Hsinchu
Sanhsia Tsushih Temple and Sanhsia old street. Hsinchu Bar Association members, hosted dinner at Hsinchu Ambassador Hotel.
- Day 6 May 28 HSINCHU To Taichung via Peipu
Hsinchu Bar Association members - coastline tour to Nan Liao Harbour. Peipu Village, Hakka Tour.
- Day 7 May 29 TAICHUNG to Tainan
Taichung Bar Association hosted lunch. Lukand Historical and Cultural Town, Chiufen.
- Day 8 May 30 TAINAN
Chamber of Red Hill, Anping Local Culture Hall and Confucious Temple.
- Day 9 May 31 TAINAN to Kaohsiung
Kaohsiung Bar Association hosted dinner at Kaohsiung Ambassador Hotel.
- Day 10 June 1 KAOHSIUNG
Fou-Kuang Mountain, Cheng Ching Lake and the Spring and Autumn Pavillions. Liuho Night Market.
- Day 11 June 2 KAOHSIUNG to Taipei to Hong Kong
- Day 12 June 3 HONG KONG
- Day 13 June 4 FLY Hong Kong to New York to Home City

Travel Arrangements by Michael L. Weil of Magic Happens Travel & Cruises
Cary, North Carolina, USA 919-678-9800 or 800-824-4968

Inaugural North Carolina Bar Association Attorney Exchange

Destination:
TAIWAN

May 23, 2006 – June 4, 2006

Delegation Members

Coordinated by the
International Law & Practice Section
of the North Carolina Bar Association

NORTH CAROLINA
BAR ASSOCIATION
SEEKING LIBERTY & JUSTICE

North Carolina Bar Association
PO Box 3688
Cary, North Carolina 27519

Linda Markus Daniels

Linda Markus Daniels is a founder and principal of Daniels Daniels & Verdonik, P.A., the first resident law firm in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina. She concentrates her practice in the representation of entrepreneurial, technology-based and international businesses. In this practice she is called upon to work on such matters as incorporations, mergers and acquisitions, securities transactions, the licensing, distribution and protection of intellectual property, tax problems and various international issues. Ms. Daniels received her undergraduate degree from Duke University and then received a M.A. in International Economics from The Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. After working as an international and regulatory economic analyst for three years, she returned to Duke University School of Law where she earned a J.D. and served as an Editor of the Duke Law Journal. She is an officer and director of the North Carolina Technology Association, a former director of the Council for Entrepreneurial Development, a former Councilor of the International Law Section of the North Carolina State Bar, and Chairman of the 2006 Venture Conference, the 2004 and 2002 InfoTech Conferences, and the 2000 and 1994 Conferences on Entrepreneurship. Ms. Daniels has received the North Carolina Technology Association Top IT Support Service Provider award, Triangle Business Journal's top "Women in Business" award, and Business Leader's "Woman Extraordinaire" award. She is also a founding member of the first North Carolina chapter of the national Women President's Organization. Ms. Daniels is married and has two school-aged boys.

ldaniels@d2vlaw.com

Jonathan S. Dills

Jonathan S. Dill was born and raised in Bethania, North Carolina. Jonathan graduated from North Forsyth High School, where he met his wife Robin, whom he married while in law school. The couple has two children: Benjamin Scott and Audrey Grace. Jonathan graduated from the UNC at Chapel Hill majoring in Business Administration and again from the UNC School of Law in 1991.

In 1991 Jonathan began work for a large firm, Tuggle, Duggins & Meschan, LLC, specializing commercial litigation and insurance defense. He later opened his own firm, The Law Offices of Jonathan S. Dills, P.A. and a landholdings company, Dills Properties, LLC. His law office specializes in serious personal injury work, wrongful death and insurance coverage disputes. Jonathan is currently seeking a seat on the Forsyth County District Court Bench.

Jonathan is Assistant Scoutmaster for his son's troop a member of his local YMCA board, and a board member of the Forsyth County Child Fatality Prevention Taskforce. He is also a member of the North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers Legislative Committee, and a member of the Bar Association Lawyer Referral Service Committee.

jonathan@jonathandills.com

John R. Erwin

John R. Erwin is a partner in the law firm of Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein. He is a corporate attorney, whose clients include foreign and domestic corporations, as well as technology companies and health care providers. His practice is in the transactional area, including merger and acquisitions and technology licensing. He received his baccalaureate degree from Davidson College and a law degree from the University of North Carolina School of Law. He spent a year enrolled in and attending Philipps Universitat in Marburg, Germany. He has four children. He and his wife, Judith, have hosted exchange students from Germany, France, Spain and Japan. He has also participated as a delegate in two North Carolina Department of Commerce European Missions. He is a member of the Council of the International Section of the North Carolina Bar Association.

johnerwin@parkerpoe.com

Marilyn Feuchs-Marker

Marilyn Feuchs-Marker is a partner in the 100+ person law firm of Smith Moore LLP which has offices in Greensboro, Wilmington and Raleigh, North Carolina and Atlanta, Georgia. She practices exclusively in the area of family law, including child custody, child support, equitable distribution (division of assets and debts), spousal support and international family law (abductions by one parent to another country). She is past chairman of the International Law & Practice Section of the North Carolina Bar Association and is a member of the North Carolina Bar Association. She has been teaching the Children of Divorce Program (a communications class) for over 15 years. She received her law degree from Loyola Law School (cum laude) in Los Angeles, California and has her Masters in Social Work and Bachelors Degree from the University of Maryland. Marilyn resides with her husband, David and they have two daughters, one of whom is graduating from college and the other who is a 9th grader.

marilyn.feuchs-marker@smithmoorelaw.com

Richard W. Gabriel

Richard W. Gabriel is the managing partner for Gabriel, Berry & Weston, L.L.P. in Greensboro, N.C. A native of Greensboro, he lives there with his wife and family. He enjoys reading, outdoor sports, community service and spending time with his family.

Richard earned his AB from Duke University, his JD from Wake Forest University and his MBA from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. He was Editor-in-Chief of the Wake Forest Jurist in 1975, a visiting lecturer at Guilford College from 1977-1981, and a visiting lecturer at the Small Business Assistance Center at Guilford Technical Community College. He has co-authored several legal continuing education courses in the areas of personal injury and business planning.

His practice includes personal injury and workers compensation, business law, taxation, trusts and estates and probate. His clients include local and foreign manufacturers and service concerns, family businesses, commercial lenders and local developers and trade organizations.

rgabriel@gbwlaw.com

William D. Harazin Delegation Leader

William D. Harazin, is a principal in the law firm of William D. Harazin, PLLC and an Adjunct Associate Professor in the School of Textiles at North Carolina State University in Raleigh, North Carolina. He practices in the areas of Business, Corporate and International Law providing legal services to businesses, large and small. He is originally from Chicago, Illinois and now resides in Raleigh, NC with his wife, Becky R. French. His international involvement includes being the former Chairman of the Board for the World Trade Center North Carolina and past President of the North Carolina World Trade Association. In addition, he is a past Chairman of the International Law and Practice Section of the North Carolina Bar Association, and a member of the North Carolina District Export Council. He is a law graduate of Southern Illinois University School of Law and a graduate of Illinois State University.

wharazin@harazinlaw.com

Albert C. Hwang

Albert C. Hwang is an associate in the Raleigh, North Carolina office of Troutman Sanders LLP. He practices primarily in the areas of Commercial Real Estate and Corporate Law, and is also a member of the International Practice Group. Born in New York City, he has resided in North Carolina since 1986, receiving his baccalaureate and law degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. As an undergraduate, he majored in Philosophy and International Studies, with a focus on East Asia and Political Science. He was employed as a summer clerk for Lee and Li after his first year of law school, and has visited Taiwan on numerous occasions for study and work.

albert.hwang@troutmansanders.com

