TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I
Update from the Industrial Commission
Philip A. Baddour, III – Raleigh

Industrial Commission Sections: Who’s New Since Last Year’s Conference .........................I-1
Industrial Commission Initiatives: What’s New Since Last Year’s Conference .....................I-2
Recent and Current Industrial Commission Rulemaking ......................................................I-5
Future Rulemaking ................................................................................................................I-6
North Carolina Voluntary and Assigned Risk Market Filing Approvals ................................I-6
North Carolina Workers’ Compensation Insurance Costs Set to Decrease Again in 2020 ....I-6

CHAPTER II
Update from the Executive Secretary
Meredith R. Henderson – Raleigh

Introduction ................................................................................................................................II-1
General Administrative Motions ...............................................................................................II-1
Administrative Medical Motions ...............................................................................................II-5
Form 24 and Form 23 Applications .........................................................................................II-6
Compromise Settlement Agreements .....................................................................................II-7
Conclusion ...............................................................................................................................II-8
CHAPTER III
Two Lawyers and a Mediator Walk into a Bar; Now What?
A Discussion of Practice and Ethics in Workers' Compensation Mediations Issues

Jacqueline R. “Jackie” Clare – Raleigh
Thomas M. “Tom” Clare – Raleigh
H. Randolph “Dolph” Sumner – Gastonia

Introduction ...III-1
Continuing Mediator Education Policy ........................................III-1
File Reports of Mediator ..........................................................III-3
Advisory Opinion 35 (2018) (Attachment 3) - Settlement Authority -
Attorney Signing Agreement on Client’s Behalf ................................III-3
Advisory Opinion 34 (2018) (Attachment 4) – Mediator May Not Conduct Two Mediation
Conferences Simultaneously ........................................ III-6
Advisory Opinion 33 (2016) (Attachment 5) - De Minimis Gifts as Advertising Tool for Mediator ..................................................III-6
Advisory Opinion 32 (2016) (Attachment 6) – Family Member or Friend as Language Interpreter for Pro Se Party ........................................ III-9
Confidentiality and Inadmissibility ............................................III-10
Standard III, Confidentiality - Proposed Amendments ................III-16
Advisory Opinion 04 (2003) (Attachment 10) - Retention of Mediation Files ................................III-16
Advisory Opinion 16 (2010) (Attachment 11) - Mediator Has Duty to Protect
Integrity of Mediation Process ..................................................III-17
Consent – Standard IV – A Mediator Shall Make Reasonable Efforts to Ensure that Each Party Understands the Mediation Process, the Role of the Mediator and the Party’s Options Within the Process ..................III-18
Good Faith – No Requirement ...................................................III-18
Truth Telling in Negotiations ....................................................III-18
Talking Directly to Opposing Party ............................................III-19
Standard VI, Separation of Mediation from Legal and Other Professional Advice ..........III-20
Conclusion ..................................................................................III-21
Attachments ...............................................................................III-22
CHAPTER IV
Google Power Search for Lawyers
Catherine Sanders Reach – Cary

Is There a Duty to Google? ............................................................................................................... IV-2
What is the Internet Good For? ....................................................................................................... IV-2
Evaluating Search Results ................................................................................................................. IV-3
Google Ready Reference ................................................................................................................... IV-4
Google Search Results Refinement .................................................................................................. IV-6
Google Advanced Search Terms and Connectors ........................................................................... IV-7
404 (Page Not Found) Errors ........................................................................................................... IV-9
Google News ..................................................................................................................................... IV-9
Create Personalized Search Engines ............................................................................................... IV-9
Social Media Search Engine .............................................................................................................. IV-10
Google Image Search ........................................................................................................................ IV-10
Google Alerts ..................................................................................................................................... IV-11
YouTube ............................................................................................................................................ IV-12
Google Maps ..................................................................................................................................... IV-12
Google Scholar .................................................................................................................................. IV-13
Google Patent Search ........................................................................................................................ IV-14
Google Finance .................................................................................................................................. IV-14

CHAPTER V
The Intersection of Employment Law and Workers’ Compensation
L. Michelle Gessner – Charlotte
Erica B. Lewis – Wilmington
Martha E. “Mimi” Soule – Raleigh

Avoid Further Claims – Don’t Forget the Ada!.................................................................................. V-1
Returning to Work…But Now Disabled? ........................................................................................... V-1
So, Are All Employees Injured on the Job Disabled? ..................................................................... V-1
But Aren’t All Employees Out of Work Due to a Workplace Injury Substantially Limited in the Major Life Activity of “Working”? ............................................................... V-3
What are an Employer’s Legal Obligations Under the ADA and PDPA? ........................................ V-4
CHAPTER VI
Intersection Recent Developments in North Carolina Workers’ Compensation Law

Heather T. Baker – Raleigh
Bruce A. Hamilton – Raleigh

N.C.G.S. § 97-2 Injury by Accident ................................................................. VI-4
N.C.G.S. § 97-2 Arising out of Employment/Independent Contractor ........ VI-7
N.C.G.S. § 97-2 In the Course and Scope of Employment .......................... VI-10
N.C.G.S. § 97-2 Average Weekly Wage .................................................... VI-12
N.C.G.S. § 97-2 Disability/Suitable Employment ...................................... VI-14
N.C.G.S. § 97-10.2 Exclusive Remedy/Jurisdiction ................................. VI-21
N.C.G.S. § 97-36 Out of State Injury ......................................................... VI-23
N.C.G.S. § 97-53 Asbestosis ................................................................. VI-24
N.C.G.S. § 97-90 Superior Court ............................................................. VI-27
Insolvent Insurer .................................................................................... VI-29
Enforceability of MSA ........................................................................ VI-30

CHAPTER VII
Life of the Case: Ethical Issues

Joy H. Brewer – Raleigh
Michael T. “Mike” Brown, Jr. – Greensboro
Melissa R. Cleary – Raleigh
Barry C. Jennings – Raleigh

Communication .................................................................................... VII-1
Discovery ............................................................................................ VII-8
Mediation ............................................................................................ VII-9
Hearing Issues .................................................................................... VII-21
Settlement Disbursement Issues ....................................................... VII-22
CHAPTER VIII
Avoiding Burnout:
Maintaining Mental Health in the High Pressure Practice of Law
Alicia J. Journey – Raleigh

Overview ................................................................. VIII-1
What is Burnout? ..................................................... VIII-1
The Difference Between Being Stressed and Being Burned Out .......... VIII-2
Causes of Burnout .................................................. VIII-3
Consequences of Burnout .......................................... VIII-4
How to Avoid Burnout in The Practice of Law ................................. VIII-4
Final Take Aways and Tips ........................................ VIII-4

CHAPTER IX
Six Months In: Forecasting the Future of N.C.G.S. § 97-29(c) in February 2020
Richard B. Harper – Sylva
Jeffrey A. Kadis – Charlotte
Jerri J. Simmons – Charlotte
Vernon R. Sumwalt – Charlotte

Introduction ................................................................ IX-1
Context of the 2011 Amendment to N.C.G.S. § 97-29(c) ..................... IX-2
The Potentially Increased Importance of Vocational Rehabilitation in Showing Total Loss of Wage-Earning Capacity IX-16
The Impact of Aging on Employability ........................................ IX-18
Some Other Potential Issues to Be Resolved by the Commission/Appellate Courts IX-20

APPENDIX
PowerPoint Presentations