

The Citizen Lawyer Award was established to recognize and thank lawyers who, in addition to their legal work, exemplify the ideals of a citizen lawyer by volunteering their time for worthy community or civic causes to improve the quality of life of those in their local or statewide communities. This award recognizes role models who inspire other lawyers to invest their time and talents in service-oriented activities.

Criteria: Nominations are encouraged for lawyers who are NCBA members and work outside their law practice to help others. The lawyer's service can be in a local community or on a statewide basis, including:

- Military service
- Elected or appointed service in local or state government
- Service on boards of community agencies or nonprofit organizations
- Leadership in public service projects, such as Habitat for Humanity, scouting or youth sports
- Significant volunteer involvement with schools, faith-based programs, or other service-minded organizations
