I. “HOW ADOLESCENT BRAIN DEVELOPMENT INFORMS THE AGE OF JURISDICTION DEBATE.”

The Honorable Marcia H. Morey – Durham
Brandy P. Bynum – Raleigh
Cindy C. Cottle, PhD – Raleigh

JUVENILE AGE TO 18 ADOLESCENCE BRAINS ARE STILL UNDER CONSTRUCTION
THE TEENAGE BRAIN IS A WORK IN PROGRESS
ADOLESCENT EXPERIENCES MATTER FOR LIFE OUTCOMES
ADOLESCENT BRAINS REQUIRE NURTURING
ADOLESCENT BRAIN DEVELOPMENT
Things to Remember
Changes in the Brain from Adolescence through Young Adulthood
Practical Applications of Adolescent Brain Development
Changes in the Brain from Adolescence through Young Adulthood
MEMO: RAISING THE AGE OF JUVENILE JURISDICTION IN NORTH CAROLINA

II. OVERVIEW OF THE VARIOUS CHALLENGES FACING YOUTH IN TRANSITION

Fantasia Johnson – Durham
Alexander M. Protzman, MSW, LCSW – Durham
Lauren Zingraff, MSW – Durham

III. YOUTH IN THE SCHOOL TO PRISON PIPELINE: ZEALOUS REPRESENTATION IN THE EDUCATION, DELINQUENCY AND CRIMINAL SYSTEMS

Barbara A. Fedders – Chapel Hill
Jennifer Story – Durham

IV. THE RECLAIMING FUTURES INITIATIVE

The Honorable Beth S. Dixon – Salisbury
Jessica Jones – Raleigh

INTRODUCTION
Reclaiming Futures Model
V. THE ADVOCATE’S SPECIAL RESPONSIBILITY TO MINOR CLIENTS: LEGAL ETHICS IN JUVENILE REPRESENTATION

Whitney B. Fairbanks – Chapel Hill

VI. MAINTAINING A HEALTHY WORK/LIFE BALANCE

John L. Sarratt – Raleigh

OUTLINE ........................................................................................................VI-1
INTRODUCTION ..........................................................................................VI-3
RESOURCES .................................................................................................VI-4
  Your Physician .........................................................................................VI-4
  Bar Programs ..........................................................................................VI-4
  Statewide Mental Health Groups .............................................................VI-7
  National Mental Health Groups ...............................................................VI-8
SYMPTOMS AND TREATMENT OF DEPRESSION AND BIPOLAR DISORDER ........................................................................................................ VI-9
  Major Depression .....................................................................................VI-9
  Manic Depression or Bipolar Disorder .......................................................VI-11
  Take the Test ...........................................................................................VI-13
  A Mental Health Story from a LAP Volunteer .........................................VI-14
SUBSTANCE ABUSE ......................................................................................VI-16
  A Substance Abuse Story from a LAP Volunteer .......................................VI-16
  Take the Test ...........................................................................................VI-18
STATISTICS ..................................................................................................VI-19
NC STATE BAR FORMAL ETHICS OPINION: RESPONDING TO OPPOSING COUNSEL’S MENTAL HEALTH PROBLEM ................................VI-21
CONCLUSION ..............................................................................................VI-24