With a Little Help from My Friends: Using Experts in a Family Law Case
Family Law Intensive Program

Table of Contents

I

A. ASK ME WHY: USING CUSTODY EVALUATIONS

Jonathan D. Feit – Charlotte, NC
Alice C. Stubbs – Raleigh, NC

WHO MAY BE QUALIFIED AS AN EXPERT? .................................. IA-1
EXPERT TESTIMONY IN CUSTODY CASES ................................ IA-6
CONCLUSION ................................................................................ IA-11
ADDITIONAL MATERIALS ............................................................... IA-12

B. STATE OF THE ART IN CHILD CUSTODY ASSESSMENT

Jonathan Gould, PhD – Charlotte, NC

IMPORTANCE OF THE PROBLEM ............................................... IB-1
RELEVANT PSYCHOLOGICAL THEORY AND PRINCIPLES .......... IB-2
RESEARCH REVIEW .................................................................... IB-12
REFERENCES ............................................................................... IB-47

C. ASSOCIATION OF FAMILY AND CONCILIATION COURTS
GUIDELINES AND STANDARDS

Karen K. Shelton, PhD – Charlotte, NC

AFCC MODEL STANDARDS OF PRACTICE FOR CHILD CUSTODY EVALUATION

INTRODUCTION ............................................................................ IC-5
PREAMBLE .................................................................................. IC-6
TRAINING, EDUCATION, & COMPETENCY ISSUES .................. IC-8
KNOWLEDGE OF LAW ............................................................... IC-9
RECORD KEEPING AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION .......... IC-10
COMMUNICATION WITH LITIGANTS, ATTORNEYS, & COURTS .. IC-11
DATA GATHERING ........................................................................ IC-13
USE OF FORMAL ASSESSMENT INSTRUMENTS ....................... IC-17
THE TEAM APPROACH TO EVALUATION ................................. IC-18
ROLE CONFLICT AND DUAL ROLE ISSUES ......................... IC-19
INTERVIEWING CHILDREN ........................................................ IC-20
OBSERVATIONAL – INTERACTIONAL ASSESSMENT ............... IC-21
USE OF COLLATERAL SOURCE INFORMATION ....................... IC-22
PRESENTATION AND INTERPRETATION OF DATA ................. IC-24
AFCC GUIDELINES FOR COURT-INVOLVED THERAPY

PREAMBLE .......................................................... IC-1
INTRODUCTION ................................................... IC-1
DEFINITIONS ....................................................... IC-2
GUIDELINE 1: ASSESSING LEVELS OF COURT INVOLVEMENT .... IC-5
GUIDELINE 2: PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES .................. IC-7
GUIDELINE 3: COMPETENCE .................................. IC-9
GUIDELINE 4: MULTIPLE RELATIONSHIPS .......................... IC-12
GUIDELINE 5: FEE ARRANGEMENTS ............................... IC-13
GUIDELINE 6: INFORMED CONSENT ............................... IC-14
GUIDELINE 7: PRIVACY, CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVILEGE .... IC-17
GUIDELINE 8: METHODS AND PROCEDURES ................... IC-21
GUIDELINE 9: DOCUMENTATION ................................ IC-25
GUIDELINE 10: PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION ............. IC-27
APPENDIX ................................................................ IC-30

II. KOMM, GIB MIR DEINE HAND: WHEN TO CALL AN APPELLATE EXPERT

        Jonathan G. McGirt – Raleigh, NC

III. EXPERT USE IN ALIMONY PROCEEDINGS “DO YOU NEED ANYBODY?”

        C. Ray Grantham Jr. – Winston-Salem, NC

SCOPE ................................................................ III-1
IDENTIFYING EXPERTS YOU MAY NEED TO HELP DEVELOP AND PRESENT YOUR CLIENT’S ALIMONY CLAIM .......... III-1
EARNING CAPACITY AND EARNING POWER ........................ III-2
EARNINGS, EARNED AND UNEARNED INCOME .................. III-4
PHYSICAL, MENTAL, AND EMOTIONAL CONDITIONS .......... III-6
TAX RAMIFICATIONS ............................................. III-7
EVIDENCE THAT MARITAL MISCONDUCT OCCURRED .......... III-8
AWARDING EXPERT FEES IN AN ALIMONY HEARING .......... III-9

IV. ALCOHOL AND DRUG ADDICTION

        Rodney J. Johnson – Monroe, NC

V. KIDS, PARENTS AND TECHNOLOGY

        Derek Ellington – Wake Forest, NC

RULE #1. THE COMPUTER IS A BAD PARENT ....................... V-2
VI. “IT’S ALL TOO MUCH” -- HANDLING LARGE DISCOVERY REQUESTS

J. Christopher Jackson – Raleigh, NC

SCOPE NOTE ........................................................................................................... VI-1
HANDLING LARGE DISCOVERY REQUESTS ............................................................. VI-1
   Current Law .......................................................................................................... VI-3
   Regular Issues that Arise with ESI During Discovery ....................................... VI-7
A TYPICAL DOCUMENT REVIEW ....................................................................... VI-17
CONSIDERING THIRD PARTIES TO HANDLE DISCOVERY
PROJECTS ................................................................................................................... VI-18
OBLIGATIONS OF COUNSEL ............................................................................. VI-20
   Objections to Production of ESI and Balancing Costs ............... VI-22
PRIVILEGE ISSUES ............................................................................................... VI-25
CONCLUSION ......................................................................................................... VI-30
APPENDICES

VII. THE TAX MAN: TAX ISSUES

Paul Saltzman – Charlotte, NC

VIII. HEY, JUDE: BUSINESS VALUATIONS

Jay E. Fishman – Philadelphia, PA
Kevin L. Miller – Winston-Salem, NC

APPROACHES, STANDARDS, AND METHODS OF VALUATION ...... VIII-1
   Standards of Value............................................................................................. VIII-1
   Valuation Approaches and Methods ............................................................... VIII-4
PERSONAL GOODWILL V. ENTITY GOODWILL ...................................... VIII-8
   Introduction........................................................................................................ VIII-8
   Definitions of Goodwill .................................................................................... VIII-8
   Standards of Value in Divorce ......................................................................... VIII-9
   Standard of Value and Personal/Enterprise Goodwill ......................... VIII-10
   Identification of Personal and Enterprise Goodwill .................................. VIII-11
   Valuation Issues – Personal v. Enterprise Goodwill ................................ VIII-13
ACTIVE VS. PASSIVE APPRECIATION ..................................................... VIII-14
   Legal Overview................................................................................................. VIII-14
   Active/Passive Appreciation – Two Empirical Models ......................... VIII-23
THE APPLICATION OF TAX AND BUSINESS CASES TO
FAMILY LAW CASES.......................................................................................... VIII-29
IX. YOU WON’T SEE ME: THE USE OF PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS

Eric J. Audish – Charlotte, NC
Ketan P. Soni – Charlotte, NC

GADGETS FOR PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS................................. IX-1
WHAT CAN A PI DO VERSUS WHAT WILL A PI DO?.................. IX-1
HOW CAN A PI HELP YOUR CASE?........................................ IX-2
WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH THE INFORMATION....................... IX-2
APPENDIX