Table of Contents

I. ADVANCED TECHNIQUES IN CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Gary J. Friedman – Mill Valley, CA

1. FIVE STAGES OF MEDIATION ................................................................. I-1
2. CONTRACTING .................................................................................... I-3
3. DEVELOPING THE ISSUES ................................................................ I-4
4. WORKING THROUGH CONFLICT ....................................................... I-5
5. DEVELOPING AND EVALUATING OPTIONS ...................................... I-7
6. CONCLUDING AGREEMENT ............................................................... I-9
7. ELEMENTS OF MEDIATOR-PARTIES' CONTRACT ............................ I-11
8. MOTIVATIONS OF THE PARTIES ...................................................... I-14
9. PARTIES' INTENTION AND ABILITY TO MEDIATE ......................... I-16
10. THE PLACE OF LAW IN MEDIATION ............................................... I-18
11. WORKING WITH CONFLICT PATTERNS ....................................... I-21
    - Patterns ......................................................................................... I-21
    - Principles ..................................................................................... I-22
    - Techniques .................................................................................. I-23

II. FURTHER TECHNIQUES AND DEMONSTRATION OF MEANS TO RESOLVE DISPUTES

Gary J. Friedman – Mill Valley, CA

Please Note: Materials for this section are included in Chapter I.

III. THE MAZE OF ETHICS FOR MEDIATORS

Jacqueline R. Clare – Raleigh
George P. Doyle – Chapel Hill

1. INTRODUCTION ................................................................................... III-1
2. RESOURCES ......................................................................................... III-1
3. Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators ............................... III-1
4. Advisory Opinions ............................................................................... III-1
5. Executive Director of the North Carolina Dispute Resolution Commission .................................................................................. III-2

NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR 2012 FORMAL ETHICS
IV. FAMILY LAW MEDIATION – TO BE OR NOT TO BE

Gary J. Friedman – Mill Valley, CA
Robin J. Stinson – Winston-Salem

TO OPEN OR NOT TO OPEN ................................................................. IV-1
TO OPINE OR NOT TO OPINE ............................................................. IV-2
TO ACKNOWLEDGE OR NOT TO ACKNOWLEDGE
(THE WRITING AT THE END) ............................................................. IV-4
  Writing Requirements for Mediated Settlement Conference .......... IV-4
  Statutory Acknowledgment Requirements ................................ IV-4
  The Risks of Using AOC CIVIL FORM #220 (AOC-SV-220) ........ IV-7
  The Mediator as the Scrivener of the Writing ............................. IV-10

EXHIBIT 1

V. NORTH CAROLINA DISPUTE RESOLUTION COMMISSION-
MPA STUDENT EVALUATION

Students of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill:
Dayne Batten
Meghan Boyd
David Goldberg
Davena Mgbeokwere

INTRODUCTION ............................................................................... V-1
METHODODOLOGY ....................................................................... V-2
  Case Selection ........................................................................ V-2
  Survey Development and Distribution ....................................... V-3
QUANTITATIVE RESULTS ............................................................ V-5
  Survey Descriptions and Response Rates ................................. V-5
  Miscategorized Cases ............................................................... V-5
  Final Outcome of “Impasse” Cases ........................................... V-6
Final Outcome of “Disposed without ADR” Cases ......................... V-6
Mediation Helpfulness ................................................................ V-7
Time to Settle .......................................................................... V-8
Mediator Follow-up ...................................................................... V-9
QUALITATIVE RESULTS ................................................................ V-10
   Opinions of Mediation Contributing to Final Settlement ............ V-10
   General Comments .................................................................. V-11
LIMITATIONS .............................................................................. V-13
CONCLUSION & RECOMMENDATIONS ........................................ V-14
APPENDICES

VI. MEDIATING IN THE WORLD OF WORKERS’ COMPENSATION

   John C. Schafer – Raleigh
   H. Randolph “Dolph” Sumner – Gastonia

UPDATE ON MEDICARE CONSIDERATIONS ................................ VI-1
   When Payments to Medicare Are Required ............................... VI-1
   Past Payments (a/k/a Conditional Payments) ......................... VI-1
   Future Payments Requiring a Medicare Set Aside (MSA) .......... VI-2
   Recent Cases Pertaining to Medicare Recoveries ..................... VI-4
   Medicare Set Aide Trusts ......................................................... VI-4
   Calculating the Amount of the MSA ....................................... VI-6
   Timing of the Preparation of an MSA ...................................... VI-6
   Risk of CMS Increasing the MSA Amount ............................... VI-6
   Summary of MSA Approval Options ....................................... VI-7
EFFECT OF WORKERS COMPENSATION REFORM ON
MEDIATION ................................................................................ VI-8
   Total Disability Benefits Capped at 500 Weeks ....................... VI-8
   Partial Disability Limitation Increased to 500 Weeks ............... VI-9
   “Suitable Employment” Defined .............................................. VI-9
   Misrepresentations Made While Seeking Employment
   May Bar Claims ...................................................................... VI-10
   Directing Medical Care and Changing Physicians .................. VI-10
   Independent Medical Examinations ...................................... VI-11
   Communications with Doctors .............................................. VI-11
   Attendant Care ..................................................................... VI-11
   Death Benefits and Burial Expenses ...................................... VI-12
   Vocational Rehabilitation ..................................................... VI-12
   Scope of Settlements .......................................................... VI-12
   Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners ......................... VI-13
REVISED MEDIATION RULES .................................................. VI-15
APPENDIX