A 360 View of White Collar Crimes from Start to Finish -- From Investigators, Prosecutors, Practitioners & Judges

(2015 White Collar Crime Program)

Table of Contents

I. UNDER EVERY ROCK: FEDERAL INVESTIGATIVE PANEL
   Eric J. Davis – Charlotte
   John Wydra – Charlotte

II. VIEWS FROM THE FEDERAL BENCH PANEL
   Judge Max O. Cogburn Jr. – Asheville
   Judge Robert J. Conrad – Charlotte
   Chief Judge Frank D. Whitney – Charlotte
   STANDING ORDER GOVERNING CRIMINAL CASES BEFORE THE HONORABLE FRANK D. WHITNEY ..............................................................II-1

III. KEYNOTE ADDRESS: PROSECUTORIAL PRIORITIES - US ATTORNEY PANEL
   Ripley E. Rand – Middle District NC
   Anne Tompkins – Western District NC
   Thomas G. Walker – Eastern District NC

IV. CIVIL OR CRIMINAL . . . OR BOTH?
   Amy E. Richardson – Raleigh
   William R. Terpening – Charlotte
   PARALLEL PROCEEDINGS CIVIL OR CRIMINAL . . . OR BOTH?
   POWERPOINT SLIDES .................................................................IV-1
   The Big Picture: What Are Parallel Proceedings & What Are They For? ........................................................................ IV-1
   Risks & Opportunities for Defense ........................................ IV-2
   Big Picture Advice ................................................................ IV-3
   Signs of a Parallel Proceeding ................................................ IV-6
   The Government’s View ........................................................ IV-7
   Key Case Law ................................................................................ IV-7
   Basic Principles and Their Use ............................................... IV-8
   Waiver/Preservation of Privilege .............................................. IV-9
   Waiver – Safeguards To Consider ........................................ IV-9
V. HOW STURDY IS YOUR SHIELD?

Peter C. Anderson – Washington DC
John A. Fagg Jr. – Charlotte

“HOW STURDY IS YOUR SHIELD?” AN OVERVIEW OF THE ROLE OF EFFECTIVE CORPORATE COMPLIANCE PROGRAMS

Compliance Programs Really Do Matter
Overview of Presentation
“The Spears” – See Title 18 & Beyond
Calling Balls & Strikes
Broad Prosecutorial Discretion
Focus of Prosecutor’s Review
“The Playbook” (Relevant Prosecutorial Policies)
Mastery of the Facts
Understanding The Prosecutor’s Playbook
Principles of Federal Prosecution
Criminal Enforcement Policies on Charging Corporations: Core Themes
“Effective” Compliance Program Criteria – Chapter 8 USSG
Measuring and Improving Corporate Culture
Focus of Prosecutor’s Review (Relative to Incident)
Substantive Case Study: Environmental Crimes “Spears”
Substantive Case Study: Financial Regulatory “Spears”
Key Theme of Playbook: “Spears & Shields” (See Handout)
Crimes “Spears”
Other “Spears”
Conversely -- “The Shield” Specific Factors That Decrease Likelihood of Prosecution
Lessons from FCPA Guidance: Chapter 5
Role of Compliance
Watch Out: DPA vs. Declination
Common Reasons for Declinations in White Collar Criminal Cases
Concluding Thoughts

CORPORATE CHARGING GUIDELINES

USSG CHAPTER 8 EFFECTIVE CORPORATE COMPLIANCE

FCPA CHAPTER 5 GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF ENFORCEMENT

“THE SWORDS” AND “THE SHIELDS” OF CORPORATE ENVIRONMENTAL CRIMES
VI. IS IT OVER YET?

Brian S. Cromwell – Charlotte
Claire J. Rauscher – Charlotte

IS IT OVER YET? SENTENCING TRENDS & HOW BEST TO PREPARE..... VI-1
Introduction............................................................................................. VI-1
Risk Areas............................................................................................... VI-1
Presentence Report................................................................................. VI-3
Sentencing Memorandum...................................................................... VI-13
Sentencing Hearing................................................................................ VI-16
Summary .................................................................................................. VI-18

IS IT OVER YET? SENTENCING TRENDS & HOW BEST TO PREPARE
POWERPOINT SLIDES ............................................................................... VIB-1

VII. INFORMATION IS POWER

Matthew J. Hoefling – Charlotte
James C. Lesnett – Charlotte

INFORMATION IS POWER: CONDUCTING EFFECTIVE INTERNAL
INVESTIGATIONS POWERPOINT SLIDES ........................................ VII-1
Internal Investigations Gone Wrong The Penn State Scandal ............ VII-1
Representation Issues............................................................................ VII-2
Inside or Outside Counsel? ................................................................. VII-3
Planning the Investigation..................................................................... VII-3
Preserving Evidence................................................................................ VII-4
Document Collection and Review ....................................................... VII-5
Witness Interviews/Upjohn Warnings ................................................. VII-6
Interview Memos ................................................................................... VII-7
Reporting to the Client........................................................................... VII-8
Contents of Written Report..................................................................... VII-8
Reporting to the Government – DOJ Privilege Considerations.......... VII-9
SEC Privilege Considerations............................................................... VII-10
Creation of the CFPB............................................................................. VII-11
CFPB Privilege Considerations............................................................. VII-11
Questions?.............................................................................................. VII-12