Navigating Legal Issues Related to Students with Disabilities and Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Students
(2015 Education Law Section Annual Meeting)

Table of Contents

I. WHO DO YOU REPRESENT?

Barbara “Bonnie” Weyher – Raleigh

MATERIALS NOT RECEIVED BY TIME OF PRINTING

II. BULLYING AND STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

James G. Middlebrooks – Charlotte

DEAR COLLEAGUES:
BULLYING OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES......................................II-1
EFFECTIVE EVIDENCE-BASED PRACTICES FOR PREVENTING AND ADDRESSING BULLYING..........................................................II-5
USE OF A COMPREHENSIVE MULTITIERED BEHAVIORAL FRAMEWORK..................................................................................II-6
TEACH APPROPRIATE BEHAVIORS AND HOW TO RESPOND ..........II-7
PROVIDE ACTIVE ADULT SUPERVISION .............................................II-7
TRAIN AND PROVIDE ONGOING SUPPORT FOR STAFF AND STUDENTS ......................................................................................II-7
DEVELOP AND IMPLEMENT CLEAR POLICIES TO ADDRESS BULLYING ......................................................................................II-8
MONITOR AND TRACK BULLYING BEHAVIORS ................................II-9
NOTIFY PARENTS WHEN BULLYING OCCURS ................................II-9
ADDRESS ONGOING CONCERNS .......................................................II-9
SUSTAINING BULLYING PREVENTION EFFORTS OVER TIME ........II-10
RESOURCES ON PREVENTING AND ADDRESSING BULLYING ........II-10
DEAR COLLEAGUES LETTER:
RESPONDING TO BULLING OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES ......II-16
OVERVIEW OF FEDERAL PROTECTIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES IN SCHOOLS .........................................................II-16
SCHOOLS’ OBLIGATIONS TO ADDRESS DISABILITY-BASED HARASSMENT ..............................................................................II-18
BULLYING AND THE DENIAL OF A FREE APPROPRIATE PUBLIC EDUCATION ............................................................................II-19
HOW OCR ANALYZES COMPLAINTS INVOLVING BULLYING OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES .............................................II-21
HYPOTHETICAL EXAMPLES ...............................................................II-23
CONCLUSION ......................................................................................II-26
III. DOGS, HORSES, AND EVERYTHING IN BETWEEN: SERVICE AND ASSISTANCE ANIMALS IN THE POST-SECONDARY SETTING

Linda Stedje-Larsen – Wingate

SERVICE AND ASSISTANCE ANIMALS IN THE POST SECONDARY SETTINGS: DOGS, HORSES AND OTHERS ........................................ III-1
POWERPOINT .................................................................................................. III-1

IV. ALLERGIES AND ACCOMMODATIONS

Michele E. Morris – Monroe
Deborah Smith -- Monroe

ALLERGIES AND ACCOMMODATIONS .................................................. IV-1
Overview of Allergies and Related Legislation ........................................ IV-1
What is a Food Allergy? ........................................................................ IV-1
What is an Allergic Reaction? ................................................................. IV-2
Overview of Applicable Legislation ...................................................... IV-3
SECTION 504 ......................................................................................... IV-4
Students Protected Under Section 504 ................................................ IV-4
What is a Physical or Mental Impairment that Substantially limits A Major Life Activity? ................................................................. IV-4
ALLERGIES AND SECTION 504 .......................................................... IV-5
What are Hidden Disabilities? ................................................................. IV-5
Section 504 Plan v. Emergency Action (or, Care) Plan v. Individual Health Plan ........................................................................ IV-6
Is this Implementation of a Health Plan Enough to Comply With the FAPE Requirements Set Out in Section 504? ................................ IV-7
Managing Students’ Allergy-Related Health Needs ........................ IV-8
V. Q & A: SUPPORTING AND ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

James G. Middlebrooks – Charlotte
Michele E. Morris – Monroe
Deborah Smith – Monroe
Linda Stedje-Larsen – Wingate
Allison C. Tomberlin – Winston-Salem

THERE ARE NO WRITTEN MATERIALS FOR THIS PORTION OF THE PROGRAM

VI. OCR, TITLE IX, AND TRANSGENDER AND GENDER-NONCONFORMING STUDENTS

Matt Faiella – Washington, DC

STATEMENT OF INTEREST OF THE UNITED STATES IN
TOOLEY v. VAN BUREN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON TITLE IX AND SINGLE-SEX ELEMENTARY & SECONDARY CLASSES & EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ON TITLE IX & SEXUAL VIOLENCE

ARCADIA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT (7-24-14) (JOINT INVESTIGATION & RESOLUTION W/ US DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE)

Resolution Agreement
Resolution Letter

DOWNEY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT (OCTOBER 14, 2014)

Resolution Agreement
Resolution Letter

CONSENT DECREE REACHED BY OCR, US DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, ANOKA-HENNEPIN DIST. NO. 11 AND OTHERS (MAY 1, 2012)

AMICUS BRIEF OF THE UNITED STATES IN PRATT v. INDIAN RIVER (N.D.N.Y.) FILED 8/13/10
VI. EDUCATION CASE LAW UPDATE

Brian C. Shaw – Raleigh

MATERIALS NOT RECEIVED BY TIME OF PRINTING