Access to Justice Leadership Council is committed to increasing the level of financial support by lawyers for the annual statewide Legal Aid of North Carolina Access to Justice Campaign.

Administration of Justice monitors the civil and criminal justice systems in North Carolina and addresses important issues such as overcrowded court dockets, creation of new courts, public defender's offices and judicial salaries.

Appellate Rules examines the rules of appellate procedure and recommends any revisions to the Board of Governors for ultimate referral and consideration by the N.C. Supreme Court.

Bench Bar Liaison promotes cooperation between the bench and the bar to advance the legal profession and its service to the public.

Citizen Lawyer selects recipients of the Citizen Lawyer Award that recognizes the non-legal public service activities of lawyers in their community.

Communications recommends requirements to accommodate the communications needs of the NCBA and monitors production of the This is the Law pamphlet series.

Continuing Legal Education provides oversight for Continuing Legal Education programs and activities.

Convention Planning Advisory assists with planning the NCBA Annual Meeting.

Delivery of Legal Services coordinates between the NCBA, North Carolina law schools, bar associations, practitioners, students and the public on a vision for the future of North Carolina legal education.

Development provides volunteer leadership for fundraising activities.

Endowment reviews funding requests and recommends grants from the NCBA Foundation Endowment.

4ALL Statewide Service Day plans and implements our signature phone-a-lawyer day that occurs at call centers located across the state.

(Proposed) Immigration Law would offer a forum for the discussion of immigration and naturalization issues, as well as an opportunity to network and share common concerns, interests and pursuits.

Judicial Independence strives to increase public and legislative awareness of the importance of an independent judiciary and seeks improvements in judicial selection in North Carolina.

Judicial Performance Evaluation oversees the survey of North Carolina lawyers to evaluate the trial bench candidates (Superior and District Courts) in each election cycle.

Law-Related Education organizes and promotes a better understanding of, and appreciation for, the rule of law through programs and activities impacting youth.

Law School Liaison facilitates communication between legal educators and the practicing bar and serves as a clearinghouse for information regarding N.C. law schools.

Lawyer Effectiveness & Quality of Life engages in activities to help attorneys successfully practice law in an increasingly complex and competitive profession.

Lawyer on the Line plans, oversees and implements a partnership program with Legal Aid of North Carolina that utilizes lawyer volunteers who provide advice by phone to Legal Aid-screened clients.

Lawyer Referral monitors the operation of our North Carolina Lawyer Referral Service and recommends improvements to the program.

Local Bar Services serves the needs of local bar organizations and conducts the annual Bar Leadership Institute for local bar leaders.

Membership promotes strategies to encourage new and continued membership in the organization.

Military & Veterans Affairs serves attorneys who practice in military and veterans-related areas of law and organizes and promotes endeavors directly serving active duty and retired military personnel.

Minorities in the Profession is dedicated to the outreach and promotion of an increased presence of minorities in the legal profession.

NC LEAP provides direction and oversight of this pro bono entrepreneurship assistance program where low wealth entrepreneurs obtain assistance on business matters from volunteer lawyers.

Planned Giving advises on efforts to educate lawyers about planned giving opportunities to further sustain activities of our Endowment.

Pro Bono Activities advises on activities relating to pro bono delivery of legal services and annually selects recipients of our Pro Bono Awards.

Professionalism develops and oversees professionalism initiatives and recommends a recipient for the annual H. Brent McKnight Renaissance Lawyer Award.

(Proposed) Social Security Disability Law would offer a forum for the discussion of issues and serve as a liaison with the profession and the public.

Strategic Planning & Emerging Trends creates and oversees the implementation of the strategic plan of the organization and alerts the Board of Governors of emerging trends impacting the legal profession.

Technology helps lawyers to realize the benefits of technology through the identification and recommendation of products, services and providers of particular interest to legal professionals.

Transitioning Lawyers Commission addresses issues involved with winding down a law practice and retiring gracefully.

Women in the Profession identifies ways to encourage and maintain the active participation and advancement of women in the legal profession.