Thursday, October 13, 2016, 8:15a–4:15p

8:15a  Registration

8:55  Welcome and Introductions
    M. Riana Smith

9:00  Criminal Law Update
    Kearns Davis and Jan E. Pritchett
    • State Case Law Update: Key recent decisions from the North Carolina Supreme Court and North Carolina Court of Appeals
    • Federal Case Law Update: Key recent decisions from the U.S. Supreme Court and U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

10:00  Consumer Bankruptcy Update
    Heather W. Culp
    This session provides a basic primer on consumer bankruptcy with an emphasis on what nonbankruptcy lawyers—especially real estate, domestic and personal injury lawyers—need to know about bankruptcy.

11:00  Break

11:15  Collaborative Law Practice: Exploring the Application of Collaborative Principles to Business Dispute
    John L. Sarratt
    In a collaborative proceeding, each party has a lawyer. There is no “neutral” intermediary such as a mediator or arbitrator. The parties agree to full disclosure of relevant information and the collaborative attorneys agree that they will not represent the parties in a lawsuit. The emphasis is on defining needs and interests, and arriving at the most mutually beneficial resolution possible.

12:15p  Networking Lunch (included at Live program only)

1:00  Real Property Update
    Zipporah B. Edwards
    An in-depth look at some of the most applicable cases to real property from the past 12–18 months.

2:00  The Price We Pay as Professional Problem Solvers†
    Speaker to be determined
    Compassion fatigue has been widely studied in social workers and first responders to crisis situations. New ground-breaking research has revealed the impact of this condition on those working in the legal profession. Given that compassion fatigue is akin to burn out, this program resonates deeply for lawyers from all practice areas. This program focuses on the condition itself, the brain science behind it, why and how lawyers may find themselves vulnerable to it, and how to mitigate it.

3:00  Break

3:15  Employment Law Update
    Laura J. Wetsch
    General outline of basic employment law issues (at-will employment, wrongful discharge, noncompetes, related tort claims) with 2015–16 updates.

4:15  Adjourn
Friday, October 14, 2016, 8:15a–4:15p

8:15a  Registration

8:55  Welcome and Introductions
  Brian J. Crews

9:00  Appeal Crash Course
  Matthew N. Leerberg and Elizabeth B. Scherer
  Two veteran appellate practice specialists guide you through an appeal roadmap. During the presentation, be prepared to make pit stops at appellate resources that will save you time and money, while learning warning signs of the most common (and fatal) mistakes that can occur when pursuing a state court appeal.

10:00  Civil Law Update
  Steven B. Epstein
  A discussion of key North Carolina Business Court and Appellate Court opinions from the past year and how they affect you and your clients. From substantive changes to evidentiary issues to legal trends, this presentation focuses on the recent developments that are important to your practice.

11:00  Break

11:15  So your Client is Very Unhappy: Navigating the State Bar’s Grievance Process†
  Carmen H. Bannon
  A presentation by Deputy Counsel for the North Carolina State Bar concerning:
  • Common client complaints to the North Carolina State Bar
  • An overview of the grievance process from the perspectives of both clients and attorneys
  • Do’s and don’ts of attorney responses to grievance complaints

12:15p  Networking Lunch (included at Live program only)

1:00  Family Law Update
  Ryan M. Tarrant
  Updates on custody, child support, adoption/TPR, domestic violence, equitable distribution, spousal support and more.

2:00  Social Media for Dummies... Who Happen to be Lawyers: How to Leverage Social Media in Litigation†
  Ashley P. Holmes
  This program focuses on the ethical and effective use of social media in litigation—before, during and after trial. In addition to learning about various social media platforms, attendees receive practical tips for using social media in discovery, fact gathering, investigation and jury selection. Attendees also receive information regarding ethical issues that can arise from the use of social media in litigation.

3:00  Break

3:15  North Carolina Insurance Law Update
  James W. Bryan
  This presentation provides an update on developments in insurance coverage law in North Carolina. Topics include such practice areas as general liability, auto, homeowner, umbrella, property, disability, health, life, workers compensation and professional errors and omissions insurance. Learn about case law from North Carolina state and federal courts and statutory changes enacted by the North Carolina General Assembly, and what role counsel may play for their clients. Practitioners can expect a lively discussion and comprehensive overview of how insurance coverage law in North Carolina has developed over the past year.

4:15  Adjourn

MCLE CREDIT
The North Carolina Bar Association Foundation is an accredited CLE sponsor under the MCLE Regulations promulgated by the NC State Bar Board of Continuing Legal Education. This program is approved (but not sponsored) by the Board for the designated number of CLE hours. Each attorney must maintain a record of his/her attendance for the NC State Bar annual report. MCLE credit is reported by NCBA Foundation only if a NC State Bar number is provided. Your CLE tuition includes mandatory State Bar fees used to support the State Bar’s Mandatory Continuing Legal Education program, the Chief Justice’s Commission on Professionalism and the Chief Justice’s Equal Access to Justice Commission. Your tuition also includes digital access to all program materials.

DIGITAL PROGRAM MATERIALS
You will receive a notification email when digital materials are available to download. To retrieve digital materials, log in and select “Your Course Materials” on the CLE website. All of the materials for this program will be available for download in advance of the program. VIDEO REPLAYS
To qualify for the Early Bird tuition, registration must be received one week prior to program date. NC State Bar rules require a minimum number of preregistered active State Bar members. The NCBA Foundation reserves the right to cancel any video program prior to the program date if registrations do not meet the NC State Bar requirement. Some sites require additional registration or evaluation forms. Visit www.tinyurl.com/538ARP to confirm video replay registration and program start times. CLE credit hours at Video Replays are subject to change. Video replay program attendees may purchase the printed manuscript at cost. Due to printing and shipping lead times we are unable to accommodate requests for print materials made fewer than seven (7) days prior to any video replay program.

INCLEMENT WEATHER
We make every effort to notify registrants when a program is canceled or delayed due to weather. If inclement weather is forecast, please check your local news listings or contact event venue. NCBA programs will follow the work schedule of the hosting institutions, to include delayed openings.

CLE SCHOLARSHIPS
A limited number of scholarships are available to members in financial need. Contact Membership Services at 1.800.662.7407 or email akemple@ncbar.org.
