

Table of Contents

Forward	i
Acknowledgements	ii
Introduction	iii
I. Why Collaborative Practice?	1
A. What is Collaborative Practice?	2
B. Who Participates in Collaborative Practice?	2
C. Hallmarks of Collaborative Practice	3
II. Collaborative Practice: Advantages and Cautions	3
III. Preparing to Practice Collaboratively	5
A. The Paradigm Shift	5
B. Skills Development	6
IV. An Interdisciplinary Approach to Collaborative Practice	7
A. Variations of Practice	7
B. Role of the Collaborative Lawyer	7
C. Role of a Facilitator	9
D. Role of Neutral Third Party Experts and Consultants	9
V. An Overview of the Collaborative Practice Process	10
A. Case Screening	10
B. Forming the Collaborative Relationship	12
C. Collaborative Meetings	12
D. Conclusion of the Collaborative Process	18
VI. Ethical Considerations in Collaborative Practice	18
A. IACP Model Collaborative Practice Ethical Standards	18
B. North Carolina State Bar Ethical Rules and Opinions	19
C. Addressing Ethical Concerns	20
VII. Building a Collaborative Practice	22
Bibliography/List of Resources	25
Appendix A: How It All Began - Stu Webb's February 14, 1990 Letter
Appendix B: Dispute Resolution Options
Appendix C: N.C.G.S. § 50-70, et seq.
Appendix D: North Carolina Rules of Professional Responsibility (pertinent sections)
Appendix E: North Carolina State Bar Ethics Opinions relating to Collaborative Practice

- Appendix F: IACP Model Practitioner Standards and Ethics
- Appendix G: Ethical Considerations in Collaborative Practice - Lawrence R. Maxwell, Jr.
- Appendix H: Ten Things You May Not Know About Collaborative Law - Aida Doss Havel
- Appendix I: Language of the New Paradigm
- Appendix J: Rephrasing and Reframing
- Appendix K: Nonviolent Communication
- Appendix L: Collaborative Practice 25 Years Later: Access to Collaboration - Karen J. Levitt
- Appendix M: A Dozen Tips for Lawyer Success in Collaborative Practice - Jeffrey Fink and Robert Kubacki
- Appendix N: Forms:
 - Sample Collaborative Participation Agreement
 - Sample Retainer Agreement
 - Sample Contract Clauses
 - Sample Collaborative Meeting Agenda
- Appendix O: List of Possible Experts or Consultants
- Appendix P: PowerPoint
- Appendix Q: Case Study