The State of Our Profession and Professional Responsibilities

Table of Contents

I. GENERATIONAL DIFFERENCES AND THE PRACTICE OF LAW

   Moderator: Cindy Pruitt – Winston-Salem
   Panelists:
   Kenneth R. Hunt – Asheville
   Timothy Peck – Greensboro
   Edward C. Winslow III - Greensboro

   MIDLAW AND DIVERS ITEMS PART I ................................................................. I-1
   PART II ............................................................................................................. I-5
   THE CASE FOR THE MID-SIZED LAW FIRM ............................................... I-7
   POWERPOINT PRESENTATION ....................................................................... I-19

II. ATTORNEY WELLNESS: ACHIEVING HEALTH PHYSICALLY, MENTALLY AND PROFESSIONALLY

   Sarah E. Nagae - Raleigh

   MANUSCRIPT ............................................................................................... II-1
   POWERPOINT PRESENTATION ...................................................................... II-13

III. STATE OF THE PROFESSION: LANDMARK ABA STUDY RESULTS

   Nicole Ellington – Holly Springs

   IDENTIFYING ILLNESS BASED IMPAIRMENT IN COLLEAGUES ................ III-1
   WHAT’S ALL THE BUZZ ABOUT? .................................................................... III-2
   POWERPOINT PRESENTATION – ABA & HAZELDEN BETTY FORD
   LANDMARK NATIONAL STUDY .................................................................... III-4

IV. FIGHTING DISTRACTIONS IN PRACTICE: AN ADHD PRIMER FOR LAWYERS

   Casey Dixon – Lititz, PA

   A LAWYER TELLS HIS ADHD STORY ............................................................ IV-1
   FINDING THE SOLUTION ............................................................................... IV-3
   FIGHTING DISTRACTION IN YOUR PRACTICE – AN ADHD PRIMER FOR LAWYERS ................................................................. IV-11
V. MENTORING IN OUR EVOLVING PROFESSION

Mark Scruggs – Cary

MANUSCRIPT ........................................................................................................... V-1
2014 FORMAL ETHICS OPINION 1............................................................................ V-10
NCBA MENTORSHIP PROGRAM – MENTORING PLAN ........................................ V-12