SUMMARY: This program provides valuable information, strategies and techniques for attorneys practicing in criminal courtrooms in North Carolina.

- Catch up on the last year in DWI law and find out how recent decisions in our state and across the country are shaking things up.
- North Carolina is officially a Daubert state. Understand how that is changing the ways Courts evaluate expert testimony.
- Ethics issues affect prosecutors, defense attorneys and judges. Hear all three sides discuss recent real life ethical pitfalls in criminal practice and how they see their role in dealing with them.
- Is the Defendant a citizen? It matters to you regardless of where you sit in the courtroom. Find out how and why.
- Get a full year’s worth of criminal case law and statutory updates in just under an hour.
- One of the premier jury consultants in America takes time to talk jury selection in criminal cases.

9:00  DWI Update
Matthew J. Davenport
DWI law continues to evolve in North Carolina and across the country. Find out how Birchfield v. North Dakota is likely to play out in the Tar Heel State, understand the impact of Rodriguez v. United States and its progeny on the extension of traffic stops, learn whether State v. Ashworth will cause Courts to scrutinize checkpoints more carefully and discover the admissibility standards for HGN testimony following State v. Godwin.

10:00  Immigration Issues in Criminal Law
W. Rob Heroy and George N. Miller
Immigration issues continue to be one of the most important collateral consequences that non-U.S. Citizen criminal defendants need to understand. Learn what types of convictions have adverse immigration effects, what is and is not considered a conviction for immigration purposes and what types of relief can be available for defendants who are not properly advised.

11:00  Break

11:15  Ethics Panel
Judge Kendra D. Hill, Thomas C. Manning and Todd M. Williams
Our panel discusses recent cases from North Carolina and across the country involving ethical questions in criminal practice from the perspective of the bench, the prosecution and the defense.

How to Try Your Case Like a Professional: Tips & Procedures for the “Relatively” New Trial Lawyer
by Christopher L. Parrish

Within these pages, the author shares more than 60 invaluable tips and provides insight into real-world courtroom procedures in North Carolina. Topics are grouped into pretrial, trial and post-trial phases of the litigation process, and are discussed in the order in which they occur during trial:

- Securing, Preparing and (Cross-)Examining Witnesses
- Selecting and Addressing the Jury
- Strategies for Opening Statements & Closing Arguments
- Elements of State/Defense Case-in-Chief
- Delivery of a Verdict
- Perfecting an Appeal
And much more!

This wealth of practical knowledge—a culmination of nearly two decades of litigation experience and more than 80 jury trials— is sure to benefit any “relatively” new trial lawyer.

FINE PRINT • REGISTRATION
Registrants may transfer from a Live program, Video Replay, Webcast, Webinar or Phone/Audio Streaming Program without penalty within three business days after the program date.

CANCELLATIONS
Registrations are limited by space, and may include a live video broadcast overflow room. Transfers and cancellations must be received by 9:00 a.m. the third business day prior to the program to qualify for a refund (less $75 administrative fee). Those not attending will receive the digital program materials in full consideration of tuition paid.

MCLE CREDIT
The North Carolina Bar Association Foundation is an accredited CLE sponsor under the MCLE Regulations promulgated by the NC State Bar Board of Continuing Legal Education. This program is approved (but not sponsored) by the Board for the designated number of CLE hours. Each attorney must maintain a record of his/her attendance for the NC State Bar annual report.

MCLE credit is reported by NCBA Foundation only if a NC State Bar number is provided. Your CLE tuition includes mandatory State Bar fees used to support the State Bar’s Mandatory Continuing Legal Education program, the Chief Justice’s Commission on Professionalism and the Chief Justice’s Equal Access to Justice Commission. Your tuition also includes digital access to all program materials.

DIGITAL PROGRAM MATERIALS
You will receive a notification email when digital materials are available to download. To retrieve digital materials, log in and select “Your Course Materials” on the CLE website. All of the materials for this program will be available for download in advance of the program.

VIDEO REPLAYS
To qualify for the Early Bird tuition, registration must be received one week prior to program date. NC State Bar rules require a minimum number of preregistered active State Bar members. The NCBA Foundation reserves the right to cancel any video program prior to the program date if registrations do not meet the NC State Bar requirement. Some sites require additional registration or evaluation forms. Visit www.tinyurl.com/CLE600CMJ to confirm video replay registration and program start times. CLE credit hours at Video Replays are subject to change. Video replay program attendees may purchase the printed manuscript at cost. Due to printing and shipping lead times we are unable to accommodate requests for print materials made fewer than seven (7) days prior to any video replay program.

INCLEMENT WEATHER
We make every effort to notify registrants when a program is canceled or delayed due to weather. If inclement weather is forecast, please check your local news listings or contact event venue. NCBA programs will follow the work schedule of the hosting institutions, to include delayed openings.

CLE SCHOLARSHIPS
A limited number of scholarships are available to members in financial need. Contact Membership Services at 1.800.662.7407 or email akemple@ncbar.org.

EVENT SPONSOR AND EXHIBITOR OPPORTUNITIES
Interested in meeting the attendees of this program? Become an exhibitor or sponsor! Contact Jennifer Shapiro at CLEsponsorship@ncbar.org for detailed information about these opportunities and their benefits.
