SUMMARY: The past year has brought a number of major court decisions. New legislation could impact the area of administrative law. Meanwhile, changes to how occupational licensing boards regulate their professions are being proposed that could change the employment landscape. This program examines recent developments and looks to what the future may hold in this important area of the law.

- Learn about the recent landmark case involving the NCDOT’s use of the Map Act and how the court’s ruling impacts eminent domain practices
- Examine recent changes to the Administrative Code regarding forum and how this may impact case preparation and strategy
- Keep up with the regulatory reform efforts taking place during the legislative long session
- Find out about recent developments at the Office of Administrative Hearings
- Listen to a panel discussion regarding the impact of recent historic preservation home cases

The North Carolina Bar Association Foundation is accredited by the North Carolina State Bar as a provider of continuing legal education.

FINE PRINT • REGISTRATION Registrations are limited by space, and may include a live video broadcast overflow room. TRANSFERS Registrants may transfer from a Live program, Video Replay, Webcast, Webinar or Phone/Audio Streaming Program without penalty within three business days after the program date. CANCELLATIONS Cancellations must be received by 9:00 a.m. the third business day prior to the program to qualify for a refund (less $75 administrative fee). Those not attending will receive the digital program materials in full consideration of tuition paid.

MCLE CREDIT The North Carolina Bar Association Foundation is an accredited CLE sponsor under the MCLE Regulations promulgated by the North Carolina State Bar Board of Continuing Legal Education. This program is approved (but not sponsored) by the Board for the designated number of CLE hours. Each attorney must maintain a record of his/her attendance for the NC State Bar annual report. MCLE credit is reported by NCBA Foundation only if a North Carolina State Bar number is provided. Your CLE tuition includes mandatory State Bar fees used to support the State Bar’s Mandatory Continuing Legal Education program, the Chief Justice’s Commission on Professionalism and the Chief Justice’s Equal Access to Justice Commission. Your tuition also includes digital access to all program materials.

DIGITAL PROGRAM MATERIALS You will receive a notification email when digital materials are available to download. To retrieve digital materials, log in and select “Your Course Materials” on the CLE website. All of the materials for this program will be available for download in advance of the program. VIDEO REPLAYS To qualify for the Early Bird tuition, registration must be received one week prior to program date. North Carolina State Bar rules require a minimum number of preregistered active State Bar members. The NCBA Foundation reserves the right to cancel any video program prior to the program date if registrations do not meet the North Carolina State Bar requirement. Some sites require additional registration or evaluation forms. Visit www.tinyurl.com/CLE602ADM to confirm video replay registration and program start times. CLE credit hours at Video Replays are subject to change. Video replay program attendees may purchase the printed manuscript at cost. Due to printing and shipping lead times we are unable to accommodate requests for print materials made fewer than seven (7) days prior to any video replay program. INCLEMENT WEATHER We make every effort to notify registrants when a program is canceled or delayed due to weather. If inclement weather is forecast, please check your local news listings or contact event venue. NCBA programs will follow the work schedule of the hosting institution, to include delayed openings. CLE SCHOLARSHIPS A limited number of scholarships are available to members in financial need. Contact Membership Services at 1.800.662.7407 or email akemple@ncbar.org.
