SUMMARY: The North Carolina Senior Lawyers Division Pro Bono Conference highlights the emphasis on pro bono activities.

According to the 2016 ABA Commission’s report on the “Future of Legal Services,” more than 80 percent of the civil legal needs of lower-to-middle income individuals are unmet. The Senior Lawyers Division supports and encourages the idea that all people should have some form of legal assistance, regardless of income level or social standing.

In this program, we explore ethical and professional responsibilities to help achieve access, and we hear from the agencies organized to meet those needs. Join the Executive Director of the Chief Justice's Commission on Professionalism, leaders of NCBA, and pro bono service providers as they share their knowledge and experience to inspire you to become part of the solution.

8:25   Welcome and Introductions  |  E.D. Gaskins Jr.

8:30   Introduction: Professional Foundation  |  E.D. Gaskins Jr.
       This presentation addresses the ethical and professional basis which obligates lawyers as members of a learned profession to make the civil justice system accessible to all, regardless of income.

9:00   The Access to Justice Gap  |  George R. Hausen Jr., Mary L. Irvine and Gerald Kirksey
       Learn about the rising need and declining funding for legal services.

10:00  The Ethics of Pro Bono in North Carolina*  |  Sylvia K. Novinsky and Jennifer M. Lechner
       This presentation emphasizes the need for private attorneys to engage in pro bono work in order to fill the access to justice gap while, at the same time, highlighting Pro Bono Emeritus status and P.R.C.P. 6.1.1.

       The panel focuses on the ways in which attorneys can get engaged in pro bono in North Carolina, including a review of the organizations involved and the ways they work together.

11:30  Keynote Address  |  Lisa M. Sheppard
       Hear from the executive director of the Chief Justice’s Commission on Professionalism.

Saturday, October 7, 2017

8:30a  CLE Registration at Chetola Resort
8:55  Welcome and Introductions  |  W. Erwin Fuller Jr.
9:00  How Can Senior Lawyers Help?  |  James A. Barrett
This presentation focuses on ways senior attorneys and North Carolina-approved Attorneys Emeritus can help address the unmet need for civil legal assistance based on James "Jim" Barrett's 34 years of experience at Pisgah Legal Services in Asheville. Jim reviews the opportunities and challenges of integrating experienced attorney volunteers into the day-to-day operations of legal aid programs without sufficient administrative staff.

For those NOT attending the Saturday CLE program:
9:00a  Spouse/Guest Breakfast  |  Timberlake's Restaurant, Chetola Lodge

10:00  Break
Pro bono volunteers from Pisgah Legal Service answer questions from the moderator and the audience about how they became involved in pro bono activities, why they continue to be involved, and what their firm/office does to encourage and support pro bono activities.
11:15  2017 Legislative Update  |  Ed Turlington
Hear a summary of new legislation enacted by the 2017 General Assembly.
12:15p  CLE Adjourns
