Planned by the NCBA Labor & Employment Law Section and the Women in the Profession Committee

SUMMARY: In past months, more and more people have begun to speak out about issues involving sexual harassment in the workplace. With the increase in frequency of these cases, it is imperative that attorneys stay up-to-date with how to handle cases of sexual harassment and to ensure it is not an issue within their own firm. Join top employment law professionals as they discuss the #MeToo and Time’s Up movements, the pros and cons of private settlement, and how to implement the best policies into your own firm.

MCLE CREDIT The North Carolina Bar Association is an accredited CLE sponsor under the MCLE Regulations promulgated by the NC State Bar Board of Continuing Legal Education. This program is approved (but not sponsored) by the Board for the designated number of CLE hours. Each attorney must maintain a record of his/her attendance for the NC State Bar annual report. MCLE credit is reported by NCBA only if a NC State Bar number is provided. Your CLE tuition includes mandatory State Bar fees used to support the State Bar’s Mandatory Continuing Legal Education program, the Chief Justice’s Commission on Professionalism and the Chief Justice’s Equal Access to Justice Commission. Your tuition also includes digital access to all program materials. DIGITAL PROGRAM MATERIALS You will receive a notification email when digital materials are available to download. To retrieve digital materials, log in and select “Your Course Materials” on the CLE website. All of the materials for this program will be available for download in advance of the program. PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES We make every effort to ensure that our programs are held in facilities which are fully accessible to persons with disabilities. If you plan to attend our program and need special facilities or assistance relating to a disability, please contact the CLE Department at least one week prior to the date of the program.

INCLEMENT WEATHER We make every effort to notify registrants “Your Course Materials” on the CLE website. All of the materials for this program will be available for download in advance of the program. PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES We make every effort to ensure that our programs are held in facilities which are fully accessible to persons with disabilities. If you plan to attend our program and need special facilities or assistance relating to a disability, please contact the CLE Department at least one week prior to the date of the program.

INCLEMENT WEATHER We make every effort to notify registrants when a program is canceled or delayed due to weather. If inclement weather is forecast, please check your local news listings or contact event venue. NCBA programs will follow the work schedule of the hosting institutions, to include delayed openings.
