I. TRENDS IN ELDER LAW AND PUBLIC BENEFIT PLANNING

Valerie L. Peterson – Evergreen, CO

CURRENT TRENDS IN ELDER LAW AND PUBLIC BENEFITS PLANNING

Business as Usual for Now ................................................................. I-1
Crisis Planning ............................................................................. I-1
Protective Planning ..................................................................... I-1

EXTERNAL INFLUENCES AFFECTING OUR PRACTICES ......................... I-1

2017: The Year of Attacking Public Benefit Programs..................... I-1
2018: What Should We Expect? ..................................................... I-1

MEDICAID COVERAGE IN NORTH CAROLINA .................................. I-1
Statistics from the Kaiser Family Foundation ................................. I-1

“REAL” THREATS TO OUR PRACTICES ............................................. I-1
According to Richard Susskind ...................................................... I-1
Probable Threats to our Elder Law Practices ................................. I-1

SOLUTIONS TO THE PROBABLE THREATS – NEW TRENDS WE ARE SEEING ................................................................. I-2

Address the Issue of Competitors .................................................. I-2
Expanding Your Services ............................................................... I-2
Make Sure we are Acting in the Role of Counselors, Not Just Drafters ..I-2

IRREVOCABLE TRUSTS PLAY A BIGGER ROLE IN PUBLIC BENEFITS PLANNING ................................................................. I-2

Why We Use Irrevocable Trusts ...................................................... I-2
Grantor v. Nongrantor Trusts for VA Purposes ................................. I-3
Why Nongrantor Trusts ................................................................ I-3
Gift and Estate Tax Treatment of a VAPT ....................................... I-3

CONCLUSION ..................................................................................... I-3

II. USING THE TOOLS OF SUPPORTED DECISION MAKING TO HELP CLIENTS WITH DEMENTIA

David Godfrey – Washington, DC

SCOPE ............................................................................................. II-1

THE CHALLENGE OF DEMENTIA...................................................... II-1

UNDERSTANDING CAPACITY ......................................................... II-2

SUPPORTED DECISION MAKING (SDM) ........................................... II-4

DON’T BE RIDICULOUS – SDM CAN’T ALWAYS WORK ..................... II-6

HOW DOES SDM IMPACT ADVANCE CARE PLANNING ............... II-7

HEALTH CARE PLANNING ............................................................. II-7

DRAFTING IDEAS FOR DESIGNATING A SURROGATE ................... II-8
VALUES AND GOALS SURVEYS.................................................................II-8
INTEGRATING SDM AND HEALTH CARE VALUES AND GOLAS........II-10
SDM AND FINANCIAL PLANNING.............................................................II-11
SUPPORTED DECISION MAKING AGREEMENTS...............................II-12
TEXAS...........................................................................................................II-12
TEXAS STATUTORY FORM SDM AGREEMENT ................................II-13
DELAWARE................................................................................................II-15
THE SDM CONTRACT IS A GOOD PLACE TO CLARIFY THE GOALS
AND VALUES OF THE PERSON........................................................II-15
INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE ADVISOR / AGENT.............................II-17
TRAINING THE ADVISOR / ADVISOR IN SDM..............................II-17

III-A. ELDER & SPECIAL NEEDS LAW DEVELOPMENTS – NORTH CAROLINA

Kathleen Rose Rodberg - Asheville

SCOPE OF MATERIALS........................................................................III-A-1
NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATIVE DEVELOPMENTS........................III-A-1
NORTH CAROLINA CASE LAW.........................................................III-A-13
GUARDIANSHIP/POWER OF ATTORNEY......................................III-A-13
ATTACHMENTS..................................................................................III-A-21

III-B. RECENT DEVELOPMENTS FROM AROUND THE NATION

Letha Sgritta McDowell – Kitty Hawk, NC

AUTHOR NOTE ....................................................................................III-B-1
CASE LAW UPDATE .............................................................................III-B-1
LEGISLATION AND OTHERS.............................................................III-B-8

IV. ASSET PROTECTION PLANNING FOR BLENDED FAMILIES

Letha Sgritta McDowell – Kitty Hawk, NC

INTRODUCTION .....................................................................................IV-1
BLENDED FAMILIES ...........................................................................IV-2
PAYING FOR LONG-TERM CARE ....................................................IV-4
Private Pay .........................................................................................IV-5
Long-Term Care Insurance ..............................................................IV-7
Medicaid ...........................................................................................IV-9
CONCLUSION......................................................................................IV-27

V. LEAVING RETIREMENT BENEFITS TO PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Larry H. Rocamora – Durham

INTRODUCTION .....................................................................................V-1
RETIREMENT PLAN BASICS...............................................................V-1
Distributions during Life................................................................. V-1
Distributions after Death................................................................. V-2
NAMING A TRUST AS BENEFICIARY .............................................. V-8
Trust as Designated Beneficiary ..................................................... V-8
Determining Beneficiaries that are Identifiable from the Trust........ V-8
Conduit Trust ................................................................................. V-9
Accumulation Trust ....................................................................... V-10
“Switch” Trust .............................................................................. V-19
PLANNING FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES:
RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THIRD-PARTY TRUSTS ...................... V-19
Things to Consider ......................................................................... V-19
Planning Options for Beneficiaries with Disabilities...................... V-21
REPAIRING TRUSTS ...................................................................... V-24
Disclaimers .................................................................................... V-24
Removing Non-Individual Beneficiaries before the Determination
Date and Creating Separate Accounts ........................................... V-26
Trust and Beneficiary Reformation ................................................. V-26
FIRST-PARTY TRUSTS AND RETIREMENT ACCOUNT ASSETS.... V-30
Transfer to a Self-Settled d(4)(A) Special Needs Trust ................. V-30
Medicaid Payback and Tax Considerations .................................. V-31
PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE CHANGES ............................................. V-32
CONCLUSION ............................................................................... V-32
EXHIBITS ...................................................................................... V-33

VI. NAVIGATING HOUSING AND PUBLIC BENEFITS

B. Bailey Liipfert, III and Aimee Smith – Winston-Salem

HOUSING OPTIONS FOR FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES ............................................................................... VI-1
INTRODUCTION ........................................................................... VI-1
BRIEF OVERVIEW OF EXISTING RESIDENTIAL OPTIONS .......... VI-3
IMPACT OF MANAGED CARE INITIATIVES ON LIVING AT HOME ... VI-9
Rate Decreases and Provider Assessment Fees ............................. VI-9
Innovations Waiver under § 1915(b)(c) ......................................... VI-9
Restructuring of Personal Care Services ..................................... VI-10
Private Duty Nursing Services ..................................................... VI-11
AN OVERVIEW OF THE WAIVER PROGRAMS.............................. VI-12
CAP/DA & CAP/Choice ................................................................. VI-12
The Innovations Waivers ............................................................ VI-13
CAP/C (Katie Becket Waiver) ....................................................... VI-13
Mechanics of Operating the CAP Programs ............................... VI-13
HOW CAP PROGRAMS ARE ADMINISTERED, GENERALLY .... VI-14
The Role of County DSS ............................................................... VI-14
Role of Lead Agencies/LME’s ..................................................... VI-14
Providers ..................................................................................... VI-14
Cost Limits on CAP Programs .................................................... VI-15
Limits on Number of Participants in CAP Programs .................... VI-15
Waiting Lists for CAP/DA Programs ........................................... VI-16
VII. PLANNING STRATEGIES FOR CLIENTS WITH FEDERAL EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Nancy A. Mayer – Durham/Chapel Hill

SCOPE NOTE ................................................................................................ VII-1
INTRODUCTION ............................................................................................ VII-1
WHO ARE FEDERAL CIVIL SERVICE AND USPS EMPLOYEES........... VII-2
  General Schedule (GS) ........................................................................ VII-2
  Federal Wage System (FWS) ............................................................... VII-2
  Senior Executive Service (SES)............................................................ VII-2
  Postal Service Craft Positions ............................................................... VII-3
  Postal Executive and Administrative Staff (EAS) .............................. VII-3
BENEFITS RECEIVED BY CIVIL SERVANTS WHILE THEY ARE WORKING FOR THE FEDERAL CIVIL SERVICE AND FEDERAL WAGE SERVICE ........................................................................ VII-3
  Pay....................................................................................................... VII-3
  Health Insurance ................................................................................ VII-3
  Federal Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP) ............... VII-6
  Federal Health and Dependent Care Accounts .............................. VII-11
  Leave Program .................................................................................. VII-12
  Other Non-retirement Optional Programs ....................................... VII-15
  Retirement Programs for Active Employees .................................. VII-16
HOW TO RETIRE ......................................................................................... VII-23
  Choosing the Right or Wrong Date ................................................. VII-23
  Filing for Retirement ......................................................................... VII-24
FEDERAL RETIREMENT ............................................................................ VII-24
  Retirement Benefits for Both CSRS and FERS Employees .......... VII-24
  Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) .......................................... VII-33
  Federal Employee Retirement System (FERS) ............................... VII-40
POSTAL SERVICE ..................................................................................... VII-45
VIII-A. FIDUCIARY LITIGATION STRATEGIES

William C. “Bill” Trosch - Charlotte

SCOPE NOTE ............................................................................................ VIII-A-1
WHY DOES A TRANSACTIONAL ATTORNEY CARE ABOUT LITIGATION? ............................................................................................ VIII-A-1
Keeping Your Client Away from Controversy and Out of Court... VIII-A-2
What You Draft May End up in Court............................................ VIII-A-2
You May End up in Court as a Witness, or Even a Party.............. VIII-A-3
WHAT DOES LITIGATION LOOK LIKE? ............................................. VIII-A-3
Litigation Process – Superior Court Generally........................ VIII-A-3
Caveats.......................................................................................... VIII-A-11
Before the Clerk............................................................................ VIII-A-17
GETTING INSIDE THE LITIGATOR’S MIND AND “THINKING LIKE A LITIGATOR” ............................................................................. VIII-A-27
Tailor Your Message to Your Audience........................................ VIII-A-27
Start at the End and Work Backwards........................................ VIII-A-28
WWJD........................................................................................... VIII-A-29
ATTACKING THE FIDUCIARY: IT ALL STARTS (AND USUALLY ENDS) WITH................................................................. VIII-A-31
Constructive Fraud versus Breach of Fiduciary Duty................... VIII-A-31
Other Causes of Action in Fiduciary Litigation.......................... VIII-A-33
ATTACKING THE ORIGINAL INSTRUMENTS VALIDITY .......... VIII-A-35
Was it Executed Properly?............................................................ VIII-A-35
Lack of Mental Capacity................................................................. VIII-A-35
Undue Influence............................................................................ VIII-A-36
Duress ........................................................................................... VIII-A-37
Tortuous Interference with an Expected Inheritance ................. VIII-A-38
HOW DOES AN ELDER LAW ATTORNEY DRAFT AND OTHERWISE INOCULATE................................................................. VIII-A-39
Draft with Litigation on Your Mind ............................................. VIII-A-39
Have Client Speak to Family Members Together........................ VIII-A-40
Letters to Family on Why They Did What They Did.................. VIII-A-40
Letter from Treating Family Doctor............................................. VIII-A-40
Remember Who the Client Is......................................................... VIII-A-40
Don’t be Stupid!............................................................................ VIII-A-40
Memorandum of Testator/Fiduciary Explaining Reasons for Actions......................................................................................... VIII-A-41
VIII-B. ADVISING CLIENTS ABOUT LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE

Professor Hugh M. Lee - Greenville

INTRODUCTION .................................................. VIII-B-1
THE COST AND PRIMARY METHODS OF PAYING FOR LONG-TERM CARE .................................................. VIII-B-1
LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE MARKET ............................................... VIII-B-2
The Decline of Traditional Long-Term Care Insurance .......... VIII-B-3
Current State of and Prognosis for the Traditional Long-Term Care Insurance Market ........................................ VIII-B-4
ADVISING CLIENTS ABOUT LONG-TERM CARE PLANNING ...... VIII-B-5
Traditional Long-Term Care Insurance is Less Available as a Robust Planning Tool ............................................... VIII-B-5
Can Clients Rely Upon Medicaid Long-Term Care Benefits? ...... VIII-B-5
A Shift to Hybrid Policies or Hybrid Annuities on the Horizon.... VIII-B-6
TOOLS FOR HELPING CLIENTS DECIDE BETWEEN THESE PRODUCTS.................................................. VIII-B-9
Developing Client LTCI Risk .................................................. VIII-B-9
Assessing Client’s Risk Aversion ............................................... VIII-B-13
Advising Clients about the Different Methods of Paying for Care .................................................................. VIII-B-13
CONCLUSION ................................................................................ VIII-B-15

IX. REPRESENTING FIDUCIARIES: HOW TO AVOID GETTING BITTEN BY THE ETHICS ALLIGATOR

(Keyed to the Power Point Presentation)

A. Frank Johns, CELA, CAP, LLM - Greensboro
Robert A. “Bob” Mason, CELA, CAP - Asheboro

SCOPE NOTE ................................................................................ IX-1
LEARNING OBJECTIVES AND PRIMARY SOURCE MATERIALS ....... IX-1
REPRESENTING FIDUCIARIES ........................................................ IX-2
PREPARING THE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR NON-CLIENTS ....... IX-2
REPRESENTING THE AGENT OR THE PRINCIPAL-CONFLICT OF INTEREST ................................................ IX-3
REPRESENTING THE AGENT OR THE PRINCIPAL-CONFIDENTIALITY ........................................................ IX-4
REPRESENTING THE AGENT OR THE PRINCIPAL-LIABILITY ........ IX-5
NORTH CAROLINA CASE LAW ......................................................... IX-6
CONCLUSION........................................................................................................ IX-6
APPENDIX........................................................................................................ IX-7