This program features practical topics that focus on complex legal issues in the Labor and Employment Law field and current trends such as social media ethics and #MeToo. We have excellent substantive updates regarding the Supreme Court of the United States, the Fourth Circuit and the North and South Carolina state law—all presented by leading employment law practitioners in their own entertaining and educational way.

Planned by NCBA Labor & Employment Law Section in conjunction with the SC Bar Employment & Labor Law Section.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING...

“Excellent topic choices and extremely knowledgeable panelists.”

“Good program! Expectations were high and they were met. I’ve attended many times and intend to continue.”

“Always a great CLE for employment practitioners. This one did not disappoint.”

REGISTRATION: All registrations are processed after payment is received. To qualify for the early tuition rate, payment must be received prior to the deadline indicated. Stated early discount rate percentage is approximate. Registrations may be capped based on venue size and may include an overflow room with additional seating. CHANGES TO EXISTING REGISTRATIONS: Should an attendee need to cancel his or her registration to a Live, Webcast or Video Replay program, the cancellation request must be received by 9:00a ET one (1) week prior to the start of the program to receive a full refund. Any attendee requesting cancellation less than one week prior to the program will receive a refund, less a $75 administrative fee. An attendee may choose to transfer his or her registration to a program to the Live, Webcast or Video Replay format of the same program only. Transfer requests must be received by 9:00a ET one (1) business day prior to the program start date. An attendee may further choose to substitute his or her registration to a Live or Video Replay program only. Substitution means sending another person to attend the Live or Video Replay program when the original registrant is unable to attend. Substitution requests must be received by 9:00a ET one (1) week prior to the program start date. The substituted person may be assessed a different fee based on their NCBA membership classification. Cancellation, transfer and substitution requests must be provided in writing by email at askcle@ncbar.org or by calling 800.228.3402. If an attendee misses any portion of a program, that portion is not subject to substitution, refund or transfer. Except as provided herein, registrations, including On Demand registrations, cannot be cancelled, substituted or transferred once purchased. NO-SHOWS: Anyone who is registered for a program, including CLE Premier Pass holders, but does not check in is considered a no-show. No-shows are not issued a refund, and Premier Pass holders will be assessed a $75 administrative fee. These registrants will receive the digital materials, available in their online accounts, in full consideration of tuition paid. MISCELLANEOUS: The NCBA reserves the right to cancel or reschedule programs at any time. Should the NCBA cancel or reschedule a program, registrants may elect to receive a full refund or attend the newly scheduled program. Registrations and attendance at NCBA CLE programs constitute an agreement by the registrant with the NCBA for use and distribution of the attendee’s image or voice in photographs, videotapes, electronic reproductions and audiotapes of such programs and activities. Unless specified, spouses or guests are not eligible to attend NCBA CLE programs and activities without registering to attend. These terms are subject to change.
