Tired of traffic in SW Durham? A new road is coming.

BY DAVID RIVERS

DURHAM

Drivers in southwest Durham will have another route to go to Jordan High School and the Woodcroft Shopping Center now that a road extension has been approved.

But it will still be years before the road opens.

The Durham City Council approved a grant agreement Monday night that will bring the first phase of federal money for the Woodcroft Parkway extension, which will connect Garrett and Hope Valley roads.

Council member Charles Rose said the extension will relieve pressure on the kind of rat’s nest constellation of intersections in that area of southwest Durham.

There are almost 2,000 students at Jordan High School, which is located near the Woodcroft Parkway extension.

Eva Schloss, stepsister of Anne Frank, stepdaughter of Anne Frank’s brother died, Eva Schloss, the sister of Anne Frank, has hope for better world

Eva Schloss, 88, told an audience at Duke University on Monday that she has forgiven Germany but not the Nazis who imprisoned her family.

She was born Eva Geiringer in Vienna, Austria, where she regained her faith in both. And the Austrian people were very giving to make sacrifices to make a safer and better world, Schloss, 88, told an audience at Duke University on Monday.

Schloss told of her time in Nazi-occupied Austria and the Netherlands and in Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp during an interview with Duke Chancellor Emeritus Ralph B. C. Snyderman in a sold-out Page Auditorium, the largest theater on campus.

Schloss’s appearance Monday night was part of a six-week tour. She has written three books. Schloss said when Soviet soldiers liberated her and her mother, she was very depressed over her father’s and brother’s deaths and no longer believed in God or humanity, but eventually she regained her faith in both.

She was born Eva Geiringer in Vienna, Austria, where she regained her faith in both, despite imprisonment in Birkenau concentration camp during the Nazi occupation there. “From Day One,” she said, “Jewish people were pulled out of their houses and beaten up.” And the Austrian people were very giving to make sacrifices to make a safer and better world.
