North Carolina Bar Association Legal Practice Hall of Fame

Induction in the Legal Practice Hall of Fame signifies recognition of a lifetime of exemplary service and high ethical and professional standards as a practitioner of the law and for serving as a role model for all law-yers in North Carolina.

Criteria: Hall of Fame Practitioners are outstanding lawyers who have engaged in the practice of law during a significant portion of their legal careers and whose practices have served as models for other lawyers. To be eligible for nomination, lawyers must have practiced law at least 30 years, primarily in North Carolina, must be members in good standing of the North Carolina State Bar and the North Carolina Bar Association and be living at the time of their selections. Hall of Fame lawyers have exhibited throughout their practice the highest standards of ethics and professional competency and have rendered a high level of service to the Bar and to their communities.
