TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I
Rules of Professional Conduct for Attorneys

North Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct (with Comments) ..................................................I-1
  Preamble: A Lawyer’s Responsibilities ......................................................................................I-1
  Rule 1.1 – Competence .............................................................................................................I-4
  Rule 1.3 – Diligence ...................................................................................................................I-6
  Rule 1.4 – Communication ........................................................................................................I-7
  Rule 1.6 – Confidentiality of Information ...................................................................................I-9
  Rule 1.16 – Declining or Terminating Representation .................................................................I-16
  Rule 3.5 – Impartiality and Decorum of the Tribunal .................................................................I-18
  Rule 4.4 – Respect for the Rights of Third Persons ...............................................................I-21
  Rule 5.1 – Responsibilities of Principals, Managers, and Supervisory Lawyers .................I-22
  Rule 5.2 – Responsibilities of a Subordinate Lawyer ..............................................................I-24
  Rule 8.3 – Reporting Professional Misconduct ......................................................................I-24
  Rule 8.4 – Misconduct ...............................................................................................................I-27

ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct (with Comments) ..................................................I-30
  Preamble: A Lawyer’s Responsibilities ......................................................................................I-30
  Rule 1.1 – Competence .............................................................................................................I-32
  Rule 1.3 – Diligence ...................................................................................................................I-33
  Rule 1.4 – Communications .....................................................................................................I-34
  Rule 1.6 – Confidentiality of Information ................................................................................I-36
  Rule 1.16 – Declining or Terminating Representation ...............................................................I-42
  Rule 3.5 – Impartiality and Decorum of the Tribunal ...............................................................I-44
  Rule 4.4 – Respect for the Rights of Third Persons ...............................................................I-45
  Rule 5.1 – Responsibilities of Principals, Managers, and Supervisory Lawyers .................I-46
  Rule 5.2 – Responsibilities of a Subordinate Lawyer ..............................................................I-48
  Rule 8.3 – Reporting Professional Misconduct ......................................................................I-49
  Rule 8.4 – Misconduct ...............................................................................................................I-50

CHAPTER II
Codes of Conduct for Judges

North Carolina Code of Judicial Ethics – Selected Provisions .....................................................II-1
  Preamble .................................................................................................................................II-1
CHAPTER III
Ethics Opinions

North Carolina Formal Ethics Opinions

NC RPC 77 (October 20, 1989), “Disclosure of Confidential Information to Liability Insurer”
NC 2003 FEO 2 (October 24, 2003), “Responding to Opposing Counsel’s Mental Health Problem”
NC 2013 FEO 8 (July 25, 2014), “Responding to the Mental Impairment of Firm Lawyer”
NC 2015 FEO 4 (July 17, 2015), “Disclosing Potential Malpractice to a Client”

ABA Formal Ethics Opinions

ABA Formal Opinion 03-429 (June 11, 2003), “Obligations with Respect to Mentally Impaired Lawyer in the Firm”
ABA Formal Opinion 03-431 (August 8, 2003), “Lawyer’s Duty to Report Rule Violations by Another Lawyer Who May Suffer from Disability or Impairment”
ABA Formal Opinion 481 (April 27, 2018), “A Lawyer’s Duty to Inform a Current or Former Client of the Lawyer’s Material Error”
CHAPTER IV
National Task Force on Lawyer Well-Being

National Task Force Address.............................................................................................................IV-1
Introduction.........................................................................................................................................IV-7
Recommendations for Judges .............................................................................................................IV-22
Recommendations for Regulators ......................................................................................................IV-25
Recommendations for Legal Employers .............................................................................................IV-31
Recommendations for Law Schools ....................................................................................................IV-35
Recommendations for Bar Associations ..............................................................................................IV-41
Recommendations for Lawyers Professional Liability Carriers ............................................................IV-43
Recommendations for Lawyers Assistance Programs ........................................................................IV-45
Conclusion ...........................................................................................................................................IV-47

CHAPTER V
Keynote Address with Professor Tonja Jacobi

Tonja Jacobi – Chicago

Resources...............................................................................................................................................V-1

CHAPTER VI
When a Lawyer (or Judge) Behaves Badly

John Sean Doyle – Research Triangle Park
Judge Catherine C. Eagle – Greensboro
Dayatra Matthews – Raleigh
Lisa M. Sheppard – Raleigh

Order Regarding Deposition Conduct (2002) [Provided by Judge Catherine Eagles] .......................VI-1
Order Regarding Swearing Lawyer (Corona v. Day Kimball Healthcare, Inc., Hartford, CT Superior Court, Sept. 20, 2018) ........................................................................................................VI-3
Articles................................................................................................................................................VI-23
CHAPTER VII
When a Lawyer (or Judge) Needs Assistance and When the One Who Needs Help is You

Judge Wanda G. Bryant – Raleigh
Joseph B. Cheshire V – Raleigh
Judge David L. Hall – Raleigh
Dr. Richard Hicks – Chapel Hill
Claudia N. McClinton – Raleigh
Warren T. Savage – Cary
Maureen M. Zyglis – Raleigh

Lawyers Mutual Guide to Extended Leave..............................................................VII-1
Resources and Articles............................................................................................VII-15

APPENDIX