Satisfies the North Carolina State Bar Technology Training requirement
Includes the 2019 Privacy & Data Security Section Annual Meeting
Join us for the first Privacy & Data Security Section CLE. Hear about recent developments in U.S. data privacy law and learn from players on the front lines applying the European Union’s General Data Protection Regulation to U.S. companies as they walk practitioners through a mock data breach. Also spend an hour discussing the ethical responsibilities of attorneys when it comes to privacy and technology.

Whether you’re an experienced privacy and data security practitioner, an attorney hoping to learn more about this exciting area of practice, or a general practitioner looking to be prepared when a client inevitably calls with a data privacy concern, this CLE provides valuable insight from seasoned experts on the current privacy landscape. It’s an opportunity you don’t want to miss!

Rep. Jason R. Saine represents the 97th House District which encompasses Lincoln County, NC.

Rep. Saine is serving his fourth full term in the North Carolina House after being appointed in 2011.

Rep. Saine was appointed by Speaker Tim Moore in 2019 to serve as a Senior Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. The Appropriations Committee is responsible for preparing the state’s $24 billion dollar budget.

He previously served as the Senior Chairman of the House Finance Committee from 2015–2018. In that role, Chairman Saine has passed over a billion dollars in tax decreases for working families across North Carolina. Rep. Saine was also a founding member of the IT Appropriations Subcommittee, and before being elevated to a Senior Appropriations Chair, he served three terms as chair of the Appropriations: Information Technology Committee.

Rep. Saine served as the Chairman of the American Legislative Exchange Council in 2018. In this role, he worked with legislators across the United States to support model policies that advance limited government, free markets and federalism.

He is married to Kathryn Saine, who is a Director of the Lincoln County Senior Center. They have one son, Jackson, who is in sixth grade at Lincoln Charter School.
