Legislative Review

Four NCBA sections combine their expertise to provide updates and answers regarding the 2019 legislative actions. Learn what the North Carolina General Assembly has (or has not) changed and the practical effects of those changes. Brush up on your legislative procedure knowledge and skills. Hear about the most debated and followed bills of the current legislative session.

PROGRAM SUMMARY

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING...

I now have better information regarding legislative activities and efforts so far.

Good general summary of General Assembly and court actions. Constitutional questions were thought provoking. Good contrasting view points.

[I'm leaving with] a greater level of understanding of the "behind the scenes" action of legislature to affect and interfere with executive and legislative branches.

—Attendees, The Only Constant is Change: 2017 Legislative, Executive and Judicial Updates

Riding the Waves of Change: 2019 Legislative Review

NCBA is a registered CLE sponsor under the MCLE regulations promulgated by the North Carolina State Bar Board of Continuing Legal Education.

REGISTRATION: All registrations are processed after payment is received. To qualify for the early tuition rate, payment must be received prior to the deadline indicated. Stated early discount rate percentage is approximate. Registrations may be capped based on venue size and may include an overflow room with additional seating. CHANGES TO EXISTING REGISTRATIONS: Should an attendee need to cancel his or her registration to a Live, Webcast or Video Replay program, the cancellation request must be received by 9:00a ET one (1) week prior to the start of the program to receive a full refund. Any attendee requesting cancellation less than one week prior to the program will receive a refund, less a $75 administrative fee. An attendee may choose to transfer his or her registration at a program to the Live, Webcast or Video Replay format of the same program only. Transfer requests must be received by 9:00a ET one (1) business day prior to the program start date. An attendee may further choose to substitute his or her registration to a Live or Video Replay program only. Substitution means sending another person to attend the Live or Video Replay program when the original registrant is unable to attend. Substitution requests must be received by 9:00a ET one (1) week prior to the program start date. The substituted person may be assessed a different fee based on their NCBA membership classification. Cancellation, transfer and substitution requests must be provided in writing by email at askcle@ncbar.org or by calling 800.228.3402. If an attendee misses any portion of a program, that portion is not subject to substitution, refund or transfer. Except as provided herein, registrations, including On Demand registrations, cannot be canceled, substituted or transferred once purchased. NO-SHOWS: Anyone who is registered for a program, including CLE Premier Pass holders, but does not check in is considered a no-show. No-shows are not issued a refund, and Premier Pass holders will be assessed a $75 administrative fee. These registrants will receive the digital materials, available in their online accounts, in full consideration of tuition paid. MISCELLANEOUS: The NCBA reserves the right to cancel or reschedule programs at any time. Should the NCBA cancel or reschedule a program, registrants may elect to receive a full refund or attend the newly scheduled program. Notifications regarding program changes will be sent to the email address on file. The NCBA is not responsible for any additional expenses incurred as a result of such cancellation or rescheduling. Each attorney must maintain a record of his or her attendance for the NC State Bar Annual Report. MCLE credit is reported by the NCBA only if a NC State Bar number is provided. Registration and attendance at NCBA CLE programs constitutes an agreement by the registrant with the NCBA for use and distribution of the attendee’s image or voice in photographs, videotapes, electronic reproductions and audiotoses of such programs and activities. Unless specified, spouses or guests are not eligible to attend NCBA CLE programs and activities without registering to attend. These terms are subject to change.
