AMHERST

WELCOME TO THE 2019 ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NCBA, WELCOME TO ASHEVILLE, AND WELCOME TO BILTMORE!

This is our 121st Annual Meeting and the 44th time we have convened in my hometown of Asheville, yet it's the first time we've ever met at Biltmore. We've been to the Battery Park Hotel, the U.S. Courthouse, the Great Smokies Hilton and the Grove Park Inn. Back in 1955 we stayed at a hotel named for George Washington Vanderbilt II, for whom Biltmore Estate was built, but until this year we have never been so privileged as to meet at Biltmore.

To commemorate this occasion and to celebrate the special relationships we enjoy as legal professionals, our Annual Meeting will focus on Wellness: Work, Mind, Body, Life. Nationally renowned speakers will offer a wide variety of perspectives on the topic of Wellness and share with us the tools and techniques for optimizing mental, physical and overall wellbeing. Our speakers include author and ABA Journal contributor Jeena Cho, J.D., and April Harris-Britt, Ph.D., whose work has been featured on CNN and in Newsweek. Laura Mahr, Esq. will help us build new skills to self-regulate stress. Stan Phelps, J.D., MBA will set the framework for embracing wellness in your law practice and life. Rounding out our Wellness program is comedian Greg Romeo who will have everyone smiling. Programming devoted to this year's theme is scheduled during the General Sessions on Friday and Saturday mornings with CLE credit included in your registration.

This year we will also have the privilege of hearing from the newest member of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, Judge Allison J. Rushing, as well as the distinguished Chief Justice Cheri Beasley, the first African-American woman to serve as Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Many exciting events are scheduled throughout the four-day agenda, along with an abundance of free time that will allow you to join a group activity, tour the nation's largest private home, or relax as you wish. See Biltmore in ways that you have never seen it and explore the surrounding vistas and venues of glorious Asheville.

We will also conduct important business, including the election of a new president-elect and new members of the NCBA Board of Governors. We will honor distinguished members of the bar through the presentation of numerous awards, and we will install one very special member, LeAnn Nease Brown of Chapel Hill, as the 125th president of the NCBA.

Most of all, we will have fun, for there is no better way to embrace our theme of Wellness: Work, Mind, Body, Life. Nor can I think of a better way to thank you for the privilege it has been to serve as your president.

Warmest Regards,

FOLLOW @NCBAORG FOR ALL THINGS #NCBAAM19,
